

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER.

The Minister shall begin the Morning Prayer by reading one or more of the following sentences of Scripture; all standing.

THE Lord is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

The Lord is nigh unto all who call upon him; unto all who call upon him in truth.

Give ear to my words, O God, consider my meditation. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for unto thee will I pray.

Seek ye the Lord, while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly of heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

BELOVED in the Lord, we have again assembled together as the disciples of Jesus Christ, to render thanks to God for all his mercies; to confess our manifold transgressions; to renew our good resolutions; and to recommend ourselves and all our concerns to the care of our heavenly Father. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Put your trust in him and you shall not be disappointed. With humble and contrite hearts let us approach the throne of heavenly grace.

¶ The Minister shall then say the following Prayer; all reverently bowing down, or kneeling, and the People responding with "AMEN."

() GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all men, trusting in thy loving-kindness and tender mercy, we come into thy Holy Presence, and bring to thee our devout offerings. Purify us, we beseech thee, from all guile; unite us to one another in the bonds of love and peace; pour down upon us thy spiritual gifts, and grant us every blessing in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Lord's Prayer, to be said by Minister and People.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

O Lord, open thou our lips;

People. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

¶ Here all standing up, the Minister shall say:

Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only Wise God;

People. Be honor and glory through Jesus Christ, forever and ever.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

People. The Lord's name be praised.

¶ Then shall be sung the following, or some other Anthem; all standing.

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and show ourselves glad in him with psalms. For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In his hands are the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship and fall down, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Glory be to the Father, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

- ¶ Then may be read one of the Psalms, taken from the SRLEC-TIONS: and at the end of every Psalm may be sung the GLO-RIA PATRI.
- ¶ Then shall be read the First Lesson, taken out of the Old Testament. ¶ Note, that before every Lesson, the Minister shall say: Here beginneth such a Chapter, or Verse of such a Chapter, of such a Book: And after every Lesson, Here endeth the First, or the Second Lesson.
- Then shall be sung the following Hymn, called GLORIA IN EXCELSIS; all standing.

CLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O God, through thy only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Through him that sitteth at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, in Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in thy glory, O God our Father. Amen.

Then shall be read the Second Lesson taken out of the New Testament.

¶ After that shall be sung the following Psalm, or a Hymn, unannounced.

GOD be merciful unto us and bless us: and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

That thy way may be known upon the earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt guide the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

The Lord be with you;

People. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

[All reverently bowing the head or devoutly kneeling.]

¶ Here the Minister may offer prayer in his own words, or read the Litany; or the Service may proceed as follows:

Minister. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us; People. And grant us thy salvation.

Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us;

People. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

Then shall be said the Collect for the day, and, after that, the Collects and Prayers following; the People responding with "Amen." The Second Collect, for Peace.

OGOD, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; grant us, thy servants, we humbly beseech thee, that peace which the world can neither give nor take away; that we, who in all our dangers rely on thy goodness, may under thy fatherly protection be defended against all adversities, and evermore rejoice in thy blessed service, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Third Collect, for Grace.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that which is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the following Prayers and Intercessions.

For the President and Civil Authorities.

O. LORD, our heavenly Father, the high and mighty Ruler of the Universe, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favor to behold and bless thy servant, the President of the United States, and all others in authority; and so replenish them with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that they may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue them plenteously with heavenly gifts: grant them in health and prosperity long to live; and after this life to attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Christian Church.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift; send down upon all Ministers of the gospel, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O God, for thy great love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

For all Conditions of Men.

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Church Universal; that it .may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for thy mercy's sake in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving.

A LMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

- ¶ Then shall be sung a Hymn, taken from the COLLECTION.
- ¶ After the Sermon, a Hymn shall be sung by Choir and Congregation: and after that, the Minister shall say the following:

Concluding Prayer.

A LMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and hast especially encouraged us by thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to make known unto thee our humble requests: fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

ORDER FOR EVENING PRAYER.

The Minister shall begin the Evening Prayer by reading one or more of the following Sentences of Scripture; all standing.

FROM the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

Let our prayers be set forth in his sight as an incense: and the lifting up of our hands, as an evening sacrifice.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts: to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

DEARLY beloved, we are assured that the Lord is nigh unto them that call upon him, unto all who call upon him in truth. I do therefore invite as many as are here present to unite with me in common prayer to our heavenly Father, that he, of his fulness and infinite good-will, would graciously bestow upon us those needed mercies and comfortable gifts, which we are emboldened to ask in Christ, who is the Way; giving thanks unto God through him.

¶ The Minister shall then say the following Prayer; all reverently bowing down, or kneeling, and the People responding with "AMEN."

GOD, who by thy dear Son hast consecrated unto us a new and living way into thy holy presence; grant to us, we beseech thee, the assurance of thy mercy, and sanctify us by thy heavenly grace; that we, approaching thee with a pure heart and undefiled conscience, may offer unto thee a sacrifice in righteousness, and celebrate thy blessed name in the faith and spirit of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then the Lord's Prayer, to be said by Minister and People.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

O Lord, open thou our lips;

People. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

¶ Here all standing up, the Minister shall say:

Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only Wise God;

People. Be honor and glory through Jesus Christ, forever and ever.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

People. The Lord's name be praised.

¶ Then shall be sung the following, or some other Anthem.

WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: be that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth his people shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore.

¶ Then shall be read the First Lesson, taken out of the Old Testament; or, instead, one of the SELECTIONS of Psalms.

¶ Then shall be sung the following Psalm:

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;

Who forgiveth all thy sin, and healeth all thine infirmities;

Who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

O praise the Lord, ye angels of his, ye that excel in strength; ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his word.

O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion. Praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

¶ Then shall be read the Second Lesson, taken out of the New Testament.

¶ After that, shall be sung the following Psalm; or, instead, some other Song of Praise.

O BE joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

The Lord be with you; People. And with thy spirit. Minister. Let us pray.

¶ Here the Minister may offer Prayer in his own words, or read the Litany; or the Service may proceed as follows:

Minister. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us; People. And grant us thy salvation.

Minister. O God, make clean our hearts within us;

People. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

¶ Then shall be said the Collect for the day, and, after that, the Collects and Prayers following.

A Collect for Peace.

GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended in every hour of danger, may pass our time in rest and quietness. Amen.

A Collect for Aid against all Perils.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, by whose almighty power we have been preserved this day; by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then the following Prayers and Intercessions.

For the President and Civil Authorities.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, the high and mighty Ruler of the Universe, who dost

from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favor to behold and bless thy servant the President of the United States, and all others in anthority; and so replenish them with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that they may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue them plenteously with heavenly gifts: grant them in health and prosperity long to live; and after this life to attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Christian Church.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift: send down upon all Ministers of the gospel, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O God, for thy great love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

For all Conditions of Men.

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all maukind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men: that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Church Universal: that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Amen.

- Then shall be sung a Hymn, taken from the COLLECTION.
- ¶ After the Sermon, a Hymn shall be sung by Choir and Congregation: And after that, the Minister shall say the following:—

Concluding Prayer.

DIRECT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name; and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

ORDER FOR VESPERS.

¶ The Minister shall begin Vespers by reading one or more of the following Sentences of Scripture; all standing.

FROM the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

Let our prayers be set forth in his sight as inceuse: and the lifting up of our hands, as an evening sacrifice.

Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts: to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt in due time; casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

O Lord, open thou our lips;

People. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Minister. O Lord, make haste to help us.

People. O Lord, make speed to help us.

Minister. O Lord, let thy mercy be shown upon us;

People. As we do put our trust in thee.

Minister. Praise ye the Lord.

People. The Lord's name be praised.

Then shall be sung one of the following Psalms.

BONUM EST CONFITERI.

To is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most Highest;

To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night-season;

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.

GLORIA PATRI.

To be sung at the close of this, and every Psalm.

Glory be to the Father, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our Lord;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

DOMINUS REGIT ME.

THE Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. ¶ After the Psalm, the Minister shall say:

The Lord be with you; People. And with thy spirit. Minister. Let us pray.

[All reverently bowing down.]

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy name turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living.

People. Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

O GOD, merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and grant that we thy servants may evermore give thanks unto thee in the holy Church of thy Son Jesus Christ.

People. Grant us thy peace, O Lord.

GOD, our heavenly Father, we give thee humble and hearty thanks for all the benefits and blessings, both spiritual and temporal, which in the riches of thy great mercy thou hast poured down upon us; but especially for thy spiritual blessings. Lord, let us not live but to praise and magnify thy great goodness. Grant, we beseech thee, that all our thoughts, words, and works may tend to the discharge of our duty, the good of our fellow-men, and the advancement of thy Son's kingdom on earth. Amen.

Correction of the born and entered into rest, be to us an example of godly life: even now may we rejoice in their happiness; and with patience may we so run the race that is set before us, as to have an entrance administered abundantly into thy heavenly presence, to be united with them and the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

O THOU Father of our spirits, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray: often in the midst of our daily business may we lift up our hearts to thee; and grant, we humbly beseech thee, that those whom thou dost refresh with thy presence may, by a life well pleasing to thee, show their love and gratitude, as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

O BLESSED God, who neither slumberest nor sleepest, take us into thy gracious keeping for this night; and make us mindful of that night when the noise of this busy world shall be heard by us no more. O Lord, in whom we trust, help us by thy grace so to live that we may never be afraid to die, and grant that at the last as now our even-song may be: I will lay me down in peace, and sleep, for thou, Lord, makest me dwell in safety. Amen.

Then shall be sung a Vesper Hymn, or Sacred Song (unannounced), giving devout and audible words with a melody that touches the heart.

[¶] After that shall be read one of the Selections of Psalms, in verses, alternately, by Minister and People; all standing. The reading will end with this Doxology:

Minister. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only Wise God;

People. Be honor and glory, through Jesus Christ, forever and ever.

¶ Then shall be read a lesson from the Sacred Scriptures. At the close of which the Minister shall say: — Here endeth the Scriptural lesson: and this Vesper Psalm shall be sung:

DEUS MISEREATUR.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Or, instead of the Psalm, one of the following Hymns may be sung.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS.

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O God, through thy only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Through him that sitteth at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, in Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in thy glory, O God our Father. Amen.

VENITE AD ME.

COME unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you: and learn of me.

For I am meek and lowly of heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy: and my burden light.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled: neither let it be afraid.

BEATITUDES.

BLESSED are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peace-makers: for they sha'l be called the children of God.

Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE.

P. M.

COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope, when all others die, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, in God's name saying,

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

Here see the bread of life; see waters flowing Forth from the throne of God, living and pure;

Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing, Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

¶ Here shall follow an Exposition or Address; which is designed to occupy about fifteen minutes. At the close, the Minister shall say: — Let us pray; and the Silent Prayer shall continue a minute or two; after which the Lord's Prayer shall be said or sung.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

But deliver as from evil:

PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS

UPON SEVERAL OCCASIONS,

TO BE USED BEFORE THE TWO FINAL PRAYERS OF MORNING AND EVENING SERVICE.

¶ That we may put our Trust wholly in God.

O LORD God, thou art our refuge and our hope: on thee alone we rest; for we find all to be weak and insufficient but thee. Many friends cannot profit, nor strong helpers assist, nor prudent counsellors advise, nor the books of the learned afford comfort, nor any precious substance deliver, nor any place give shelter, unless thou thyself doth assist, strengthen, console, instruct, and guard us.

To thee, therefore, do we lift up our eyes; in thee, our God, the Father of mercies, do we put our trust. Bless and sanctify our souls, that they may become thy holy habitation, and the scat of thine eternal glory; and let nothing be found in us displeasing in thy sight. Protect and keep us amidst all dangers; and, accompanying us by thy grace, direct us along the way of peace to thine everlasting home. Amen.

¶ In Time of Trouble.

OGOD, thou art our hope and our strength, a very present help in time of need. Look down upon us with thy fatherly pity, and give us hearts wholly resigned to thy divine will. May we have such firm confidence in thy good providence as not to increase our trouble by our own infirmities. Take from us gloomy forebodings and a spirit of fear. Blessed be thy name, our sorrows are finite and temporal, less than our sins, and infinitely less than thy mercies. O may it be our great care to please thee, our only fear lest we should sin against thee. Let thy loving-kindness be our portion, thy Spirit our guide, thy law the rule of our conduct; and so with patience may we wait till this cloud is passed over. Amen.

¶ In Time of Mourning.

A LMIGHTY God, who governest all things in heaven and on earth with infinite wisdom and mercy, and dost encourage us to fly to thee as our refuge in distress; refresh thy sorrowing children with the light of thy countenance, and the consolations of thy Holy Spirit. Be thou now to us, we humbly beseech thee, what thou lovest to be, a Father to those who are in trouble and a God of comfort to those who mourn. Grant that we thy servants may not weep as those who are without hope, nor complain of anything but ourselves, nor desire anything but that thy will may be done, nor do anything but what is agreeable to thy holy word and commandment. O heavenly Father, when thou smitest us, not less than when thou pourest out blessings on us, may our love to thee increase; and when the few years of our earthly pilgrimage are ended, may we be gathered to our fathers in thy peace, and in the blessed hope of a joyful resurrection, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ In Time of Adversity.

O HOLY Father, help us to labor for those enduring riches which consist in the knowledge of thee, and in the glory of thy gracious presence. Suffer us not, we pray thee, so to limit thy power as to think that thou art not now able to supply our real wants, though blessings which we were wont to enjoy are taken from us. Restrain, we beseech thee, our desires; teach us willingly to submit ourselves to thy wisdom. Let thy promises and providence be our storehouse; let it be enough for us to believe as we do, that, though we lose all we possess, yet, inasmuch as thou hast once loved us in Christ, we shall never lose thy favor. Through him be ascribed unto thee glory and dominion, world without end. Amen.

¶ That we may commit those whom we love to the Keeping of our heavenly Father.

LORD God of heaven and earth, for those who belong to us may we neither be without care, nor yet taken up with care, as if we had not thee to care for us. But let us assure ourselves that thou wilt be our God, and the God of our children; and wilt not leave them destitute of earthly blessings, for whom thou hast provided an eternal inheritance. With this confidence may we go on our way with cheerfulness, fulfilling every duty as it arises, and leaving all events trustfully to thee, our merciful God and Father. Amen.

¶ For a Fruitful Season: to be used in Spring.

OGOD, the Creator and Preserver of all things, who causest the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; who bringest forth fruit out of the earth, and dost bless the springing thereof; be pleased graciously to look down from thy holy habitation in heaven upon us, thy people, and upon the land wherein we dwell; that both it may become fruitful and yield its increase, and we may grow in wisdom and in goodness, bringing forth plenteously the fruit of good works, as disciples of him who came to sow in us the seeds of eternal life. Amen.

¶ Thanksgiving for a Fruitful Season.

A LMIGHTY and eternal Lord God, who art infinite in power and wisdom and goodness; with hearts deeply sensible of thy tender care and concern for us, we most humbly beseech thee to accept our tribute of thanks and praise for the return of that joyous season in which thou makest our fields to yield an abundant increase. On thy fatherly protection and kindness we will steadfastly rely for the supply of our wants; for thou carest for us. But, O heavenly Father, while we rejoice in thy outward bounty, do thou keep us ever mindful that man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth; and grant that we may not cease to labor more earnestly for those everlasting blessings which thou hast vouchsafed to us in thy beloved Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ All Saints.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together all generations of the faithful in one communion and fellowship, in thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; grant us grace to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living; and make us partakers with them of those unspeakable joys which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee. Amen.

¶ The Ordination of Ministers.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of thine infinite love and goodness hast firmly established the Church of thy Son on earth; raise up, we beseech thee, a constant succession of faithful Ministers; and give them grace to remember that the servants of the Lord ought not to strive, but to be gentle to all, apt to teach, patient, instructing in meekness him that opposeth. May they become examples to their flocks in holy living, teaching not only by their doctrine, but also by their practice. Thou, O gracious Father, knowest what things are needful for this high calling: multiply these gifts on thy servants; and crown their labors with thy blessing, that the work of the great shepherd of souls may prosper in their hands. Amen.

¶ In Behalf of a Sick Person for whom the Prayers of the Congregation are requested.

ALMIGHTY and ever-blessed God, our refuge and our hope; stretch forth, we pray thee, thy healing hand on thy servant, for whom in his sickness our prayers are desired: but, O heavenly Father, grant that he may so acknowledge thy fatherly love in this and all his trials, that whatsoever thou mayest appoint concerning him, he may be wholly resigned to thy gracious will. Amen.

¶ In Time of General Sickness.

ALMIGHTY and ever-blessed God, in the midst of life we are in death: of whom shall we seek for succor but of thee, O Lord? Stretch forth thy hand, we beseech thee, and turn from us this great sickness and mortality with which we are now visited. But, O merciful Father, as thou dost never chasten us but for our good, may we be still more anxious for a humble and teachable heart than for immediate relief from bodily danger; not doubting thy desire to bring all our afflictions to a speedy and happy end. In every time of trouble give us grace, O Lord God, to help and comfort one another in the spirit of thy son Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ When General Health is restored.

BLESSED be thy goodness, O Lord, which hath preserved so many of us alive in the midst of a great mortality, and hath restored health to our land. Thou hast been our refuge and our fortress, our God in whom we trust. Grant, we beseech thee, that we may devote our renewed strength to thee with increased zeal and earnestness, as true disciples of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ In Time of War.

O LORD, our Creator and Preserver, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell upon the face of the earth; we cry to thee in our distress, and beseech thee to look down in mercy on the terrible conflicts which are destroying the lives and estranging the hearts of thy children. O breathe upon thy people the spirit of thy Son; and grant that the work of righteousness may be peace, and the effect of righteousness quiet and assurance forever. Amen.

¶ When Peace is restored.

BLESSED be thou, O God, who stillest the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people. We praise and thank thee for our deliverance from those great evils and dangers wherewith we were compassed; and we most earnestly beseech thee to fill us with the spirit of kindness and forbearance; that no bitterness may remain in our hearts, and that we may lead henceforth a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ For this Nation.

A LMIGHTY God, who rulest over all the nations of the earth, and on whose gracious providence we depend evermore for preservation and prosperity; extend, we beseech thee, thy paternal goodness to the people of this nation. Our necessities and dangers are all known to thee. Vouchsafe to guide us continually with thy counsel, and strengthen us with thy power; and so direct and sanctify our hearts, that, looking up to thee as our only safeguard and the supreme author of all blessings, we may have the unspeakable blessing of thy almighty protection and thy heavenly favor. Amen.

¶ For all Mankind.

MOST gracious Father, let thy blessing rest on every member of thy great human family. May every one be a partaker of thy gospel in Jesus Christ. Grant that the bright beams of thy truth may shine upon those who are walking in darkness; till all the kindreds of thy people shall know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. Amen.

Or.

Or.

FATHER of mercies, whose purposes of redeeming love were fulfilled by the death of thy Son upon the cross; grant that we, looking to his obedience and sufferings, may be changed to his image as by the Spirit of the Lord; and that by thy fatherly grace and blessing we may be enabled to fulfil the condition of Christian discipleship, — "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." Easter Dap.

At Morning Prayer, instead of the First Psalm, these Anthems shall be sung or said.

Rom. vi. 9, and 1 Cor. xv. 20.

Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christ is risen from the dead: and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die: even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Now unto the God of grace: for the might of his Spirit and the love of Christ;

Be glory in the Church throughout all ages: world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who through thy bestbeloved Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech thee that as thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect, as humble but faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Or, instead of the Psalm and Collect, the following may be used.

The Lord is risen indeed:

Hallelujah.

Christ is raised from the dead, and dieth no . more:

Hallelujah.

Now unto the God of grace: for the might of his Spirit and the love of Christ;

Be glory in the Church throughout all ages: world without end. Amen.

GOD, who by the yearly solemnity of the resurrection of our Lord fillest us with joy; mercifully grant that these temporal festivals which we celebrate may help to prepare us for those joys which are eternal. Amen.

Or,

O LORD God, who art the source of light and every blessing; we would celebrate with glad offerings of praise the resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ from the dead. Grant, we beseech thee, that we who with reverence would keep this glorious festival of Easter, may happily arrive at thy everlasting joys, into which he has entered as our forerunner. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xx. 1. Epistle, Col. iii. 1.

First Sunday after Gaster.

HOLY and merciful Lord God, who multipliest upon us the gifts of thy heavenly grace; grant that by the death of thy best-beloved Son we may be enabled to bear our crosses, and that by his resurrection we may have good hope of a happy end to our earthly pilgrimage. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xx. 19. Epistle, 1 St. John v. 4.

Second Sunday after Easter.

A LMIGHTY God, who hast given thy Son our Saviour both to save us from sin and to be unto us an ensample of godly life; give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavor ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life. Amen.

Gospel, St. John x. 11. Epistle, 1 St. Peter ii. 19.

Third Sunday after Easter.

ALMIGHTY God, who showest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through thy grace in Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xvi. 16. Epistle, 1 St. Peter ii. 11.

Sourth Bunday after Gaster.

ALMIGHTY God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; grant unto thy people that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found, even on the kingdom and promises of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xvi. 5. Epistle, St. James i. 17.

Sifth Sundan after Easter.

O LORD, from whom all good things do come; grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guidance may perform the same, as true followers of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen:

Gospel, St. John xvi. 23. Epistle, St. James i. 22.

*Ascension Day.

CRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God that like as we do believe thy best-beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell in thy glorious presence, world without end. Amen.

Gospel, St. Mark xvi. 14. Epistle, Acts i. 1.

Bunday after Ascension.

O GOD, the King of glory, who hast exalted thy Son Jesus Christ with great triumph into thy kingdom in heaven; we beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thy Holy Spirit to comfort us; and exalt us into the same place whither he has gone before, even into thy own blessed and glorious presence, there to dwell in fulness of joy forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xv. 26. Epistle, 1 St. Peter iv. 7.

Whit-Sunday.

GOD, who at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in thy holy comfort. Amen.

Gospel, St. John xiv. 15. Epistle, Acts ii. 1.

Or,

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, who givest unto thy people thy Holy Spirit as a sure pledge of thy heavenly kingdom; grant that thy Spirit may bear witness with our spirit, that we are thy children and heirs of everlasting life. Amen.

Or,

THE DIVINE LAW.

The Minister, at such times as he may elect, shall read the Ten Commandments; and the People, reverently bowing the head, or devoutly kneeling, shall, after each Commandment, ask God's mercy for their transgressions for the time past, and grace to keep the law for the time to come, as followeth.

Minister.

OD spake these words, and said, I am the Lord thy God: Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God; and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt do no murder.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not steal.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is his.

People. Lord, have merey upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

¶ Then the Minister may say :

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind: This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

¶ On Whit-Sunday the Minister shall also read the Law of the Holy Spirit, as follows:

If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's that sent me.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo! I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with us all. Amen.

SPECIAL SERVICES.

THE ORDER OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER, OR HOLY COMMUNION.

¶ The Service may be preceded by reading the Ten Commandments and Offertory; or, instead of the Commandments, especially on the Sundays after Easter, the Beatitudes may be read. Then the Minister, standing by the Lord's Table, shall say one or more of the following sentences.

BLESSED are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Matt. v. 6.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, My Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. John vi. 32, 33, 35.

And the Spirit and the Church say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. xxii. 17.

By one Spirit are we baptized into one body, and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. Being many we are one, being partakers of one bread. 1 Cor. xii. 13; x. 17.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me. Rev. iii. 20.

Christ, our passover, is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7, 8.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John xv. 4, 5.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you. John xv. 18-15.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. xi. 28.

God so loved the world, that he gave his onlybegotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

DEARLY beloved brethren, we come to this table to testify, not that we are righteous, but that we sincerely love the Lord Jesus Christ, and wish to become his true disciples. Ye, therefore, who do truly and earnestly desire to learn of the Saviour, and to coöperate in the study and practice of his religion; who would live in love and charity with your neighbors, and would grow in the Christian Life, draw near with faith, and take this holy ordinance to your comfort, and make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Then shall this general Confession be made by Minister and People; all humbly bowing down, or devoutly kneeling.

A LMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father; we humbly acknowledge our weakness, and the sins which we from time to time have most grievously committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy great goodness, against our Master, Jesus Christ, against our own souls, and against our brethren. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father. Comfort and help us. Raise our hearts up to thee in heaven, and suffer us no more to wander upon earth. In the name of thy beloved Son, we beseech thee to forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee, in newness of life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

 \P Then shall the Minister say this Prayer:

A LMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy hast promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto thee, have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins; confirm and strengthen us in all goodness; and bring us to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say:

Hear what words of comfort our Saviour saith unto all who desire his help.

COME unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all who believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Hear, also, what St. Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

Hear, also, what St. John saith.

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our sins.

Lift up your hearts.

Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Minister. Let us give thanks unto our God.

Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

Minister. It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

¶ Here may follow the proper Preface, if there be any specially appointed; or else immediately may follow (Minister and People together):

THEREFORE with angels, and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name; evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord, most high.

Proper Prefaces.

Upon Christmas Day.

Į m RECAUSE thou didst send thy Son into the world, that the world through him might be saved. Therefore with angels, &c.

Upon Easter Day.

QUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he was offered for us, and is the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with angels, &c.

Upon Ascension Day.

THROUGH thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who, after his most glorious resurrection, manifestly appeared to all his apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven to prepare a place for us; that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory. Therefore with angels, &c.

Upon Whit-Sunday.

THROUGH Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, thy Holy Spirit was poured forth upon the apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth; giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldness, with fervent zeal, constantly to preach the gospel unto all nations, whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore with angels, &c.

Then shall the Minister read the following words:

I HAVE received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. xi. 23-26.

Minister. The Lord be with you. People. And with thy spirit. Minister. Let us pray.

The Minister may then offer prayer in his own words, or say the Prayers following; all humbly bowing down, or devoutly kneeling.

FATHER of our spirits; mindful of Christ's life and teachings, his death upon the cross, his resurrection and ascension, and his seat at thy right hand, we come to partake of this bread and this wine in remembrance of him. We beseech thee to sanctify them and us: and may we who thus eat of one bread and drink of one cup be made one with each other in the fellowship of the same Holy Spirit, and one with thee and thy dear Son.

And in this our communion we desire to remember, and beseech thee to remember and bless, the multitudes of every name who are joined with us in one household of faith, our brethren and sisters in Christ throughout the world.

We remember those who have fallen asleep in Christ, and in the joyful hope of resurrection unto eternal life.

We remember the fathers from the beginning of the world; the patriarchs, prophets, apostles, martyrs, and all who have wrought righteousness.

We remember all such as journey; all who are in sickness or distress; and we would forgive our enemies, if there be any who have wished or done us ill.

We remember the whole family of man; beseeching thee that the spirits of all flesh may taste of thy grace, and that the ends of the earth may see the salvation of God.

And unto us, O Lord God, vouchsafe such guidance, that as Christians and blameless we may spend the remainder of our lives.

Accept, O holy and ever-blessed Father, these our supplications. May our offerings find favor in thy sight, and be as an odor of spiritual incense. Amen.

- ¶ Here shall be sung a Communion Hymn, or a Hymn appointed for Vespers, unannounced.
- ¶ Then shall the Minister, having first received the Communion in both kinds himself, proceed to deliver the same to the People. And when he delivereth the bread, he shall say:

Take and eat this in remembrance of Jesus Christ: and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister who delivereth the Cup, shall say:

Drink this in remembrance of Jesus Christ, and be thankful.

When all have received the Communion, the Lord's Prayer shall be said by Minister and People; all humbly bowing down, or reverently kneeling.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say this Prayer:

ALMIGHTY and ever-living God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us with spiritual food; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom to thee be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Then may be said or sung, all standing, GLORIA IN EX-CELSIS, or some proper Hymn from the Selection.

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good-will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O God, through thy only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Through him that taketh away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Through him that sitteth at the right hand of God our Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, in Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in thy glory, O God our Father. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall let the People depart with this Blessing:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

¶ As declared by the Clergy and Laity of the Universalist Church of the United States of America, assembled in Convention at Winchester, in the State of New Hampshire, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three:

ARTICLE I. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain a revelation of the character of God, and of the duty, interest, and final destination of mankind.

ART. II. We believe that there is one God, whose nature is love; revealed in one Lord Jesus Christ, by one Holy Spirit of grace; who will finally restore the whole family of mankind to holiness and happiness.

ART. III. We believe that holiness and true happiness are inseparably connected; and that believers ought to be careful to maintain order and practise good works; for these things are good and profitable unto men.

THE MINISTRATION

O₽

BAPTISM OF INFANTS.

¶ When the Child has been brought forward to the Altar, the Minister may read as follows, from the Gospel of St. Mark.

THEY brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But, when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ He may then use the following, or some other suitable Exhortation:

MY brethren, in our treatment and regard of children, we ought to partake of the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. We should by no means despise or neglect them; but by gentleness and watchful care, do all that we can to bring them into the fold of the Good Shepherd. That God may bless our efforts in so doing, let us now pray.

¶ Then may be offered the following Prayer.

A LMIGHTY and most merciful God, we give thanks unto thee, that by thy goodness we have been brought to the knowledge of Jesus Christ, and to faith in him. thee for the kind and encouraging words which he spoke, and for his tender compassion towards those whom he came to save; that he did not suffer little children to be driven away from his presence, but took them in his arms and blessed them. And now that we have brought to thy altar this little one, we pray that thou wilt guide and direct us, while we consecrate him to thee and to thy service. Wilt thou grant that this Baptism of Water may be the type and the earnest of the purifying influences of thy Holy Spirit, by which alone the soul can be regenerated and saved. This we do humbly ask, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Minister may then say to the Parents or Guardians of the Child:

BY the act of bringing this Child here at this time, you express in the most solemn manner your desire and resolve to instruct him in the gospel of Christ, and in every way to do what lieth in you to enable him to resist sinful inclinations and to keep God's holy will and commandments.

¶ Then the Minister shall take the Child into his arms, and shall say to the Parents or Guardians:

Name this Child.

¶ Naming the Child, he shall apply the Water, saying:

I baptize thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

¶ Then shall follow this Benediction:

THE God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ bless and shelter thee; and through his Son, and by his Holy Spirit, aid thee in infirmities, comfort thee in sorrow, guide thee into all truth, and at length receive thee into his heavenly presence. Amen.

¶ In Choirs, or places where they sing, here shall follow (unannounced) an appropriate Hymn. After which, the Benediction:

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

OF

BAPTISM TO SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS.

When those who wish to be baptized have come forward to the Altar, the Minister shall read as follows; all those who are present standing up:

A ND Jesus came and spake to his disciples, and said, All power is given unto me in heaven and earth. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost; teaching them to do whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you even unto the end of the world.

¶ Then shall be said this Exhortation:

MY brethren, now that we are about to obey this command, which is with so great authority enjoined upon us, let us seek a blessing from God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Then the Minister may say:

Let us pray.

A LMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, we give thee humble and hearty thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and to faith in thee. Increase this knowledge and confirm this faith in us evermore, that we may be enabled to mortify all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily to proceed in all virtue and godliness of living, till we come to that eternal kingdom which thou hast promised through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise:

WELL-BELOVED, who have come hither to receive holy Baptism: you know what divine help has been promised to all who seek it; how our Lord Jesus Christ hath said, Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Renouncing, therefore, the fellowship of evil, will you endeavor to learn of Jesus Christ, and cooperate in the study and practice of his religion?

- ¶ Then the persons about to be baptized shall severally answer:
- It is my desire and prayer to be enabled so to do.

102 BAPTISM OF THOSE OF RIPER YEARS.

¶ In administering the Ordinance of Baptism, the Minister shall say:

I BAPTIZE thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

¶ He shall also pronounce this Benediction:

AND I pronounce upon thee the blessing which God commanded his servant of old; saying:

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Amen.

Minister. Our help is in the name of the Lord:

Answer. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Minister. Blessed be the name of the Lord;

Answer. Henceforth, world without end.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayers;

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

LORD of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; graft in our hearts the love of thy name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be sung a Hymn of welcome, unannounced.

Then shall be said this Benediction:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep our hearts and minds, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

A CATECHISM

TO BE LEARNED BY EVERY YOUNG PERSON.

Question.

 W^{HAT} is your name? Answer. M, or N.

Question. Who gave you this name?

Answer. My parents, when I was baptized, or dedicated to a Christian life.

Question. What did they then desire and pray for you?

Answer. That I might shun everything that is evil; that I might receive and love Christ as my Saviour; follow him as my Example, and obey him as my divine Teacher, and partake of his blessed Spirit.

Question. Do you wish to confirm their prayers for you?

Answer. Yes; and I trust to be able by God's blessing so to do.

Question. What are the Articles of your belief?

Anner.

I BELIEVE in One God the Father Almighty, the Maker of all things:

And in Jesus Christ his Son our Lord, who is the true Teacher, Example, and Saviour of men.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: the Holy Church: the forgiveness of sins: the resurrection from the dead: the certainty of retribution, and the life everlasting.

Question. What do you particularly learn in these Articles of your belief?

Answer. First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me and all things.

Secondly, in the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind.

Thirdly, in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and Sanctifier, which is from God.

Fourthly, in the forgiveness of my sins, when I am truly sorry for, and do heartily repent of the same.

Fifthly, in the resurrection from the dead: that is, at death, my soul will be disengaged from my material body, and raised up in a spiritual body, that it may grow and act in freedom in the world of spirits.

Sixthly, in the certainty of retribution, or the punishment due to sin: that is, for all the sins which I commit I must suffer the consequences, either in this world, or in the world of spirits.

Question. Does God's forgiveness immediately remove all the consequences of sin?

Answer. No. Forgiveness immediately removes only one of the consequences or penalties of sin: viz., the sense of the Divine displeasure, or the feeling of "alienation" from God, and everything which separates me from his love, whether the obstacle be on my part, or on the part of my heavenly Father.

Question. What is the second natural consequence of sin?

Answer. A bad, or depraved character, which results from the practice of evil.

Question. Will forgiveness ever remove this consequence of sin?

Answer. Yes: Not immediately, but mediately and indirectly, by imparting new energy to the moral nature, and by creating a power of grateful affection in my soul, which will enable me to form new habits of virtue.

Question. Will the opportunity of a right choice be denied the soul after it enters the world of spirits?

Answer. No. The relations of the human spirit to God, the Divine Spirit, are not changed by death. Wherever and whenever the soul heartily repents, and turns to God, he will mercifully hear and bless.

Question. Which are the ten commandments? Answer. The following:

- 1. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.
- 2. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven images, nor worship them.
- 8. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
- 4. Thou shalt remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy.
- 5. Thou shalt honor thy father and thy mother.
 - 6. Thou shalt do no murder.
 - 7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
 - 8. Thou shalt not steal.
- 9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
- 10. Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's.

Question. What do you chiefly learn in these commandments?

Answer. I learn two things: my duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbor.

Question. What is your duty towards God?

Answer. My duty towards God is, to believe in him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength; to worship him; to give him thanks; to put my whole trust in him; to call upon him; to honor his holy Name and his Word; and to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Question. What is your duty towards your neighbor?

Answer. My duty towards my neighbor is, to love him as myself, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me.

Question. How will you be able to keep these laws?

Answer. By diligent attention and watchfulness not to do anything which is forbidden; and by prayer to God to help my weakness.

Question. Can you repeat the Lord's Prayer? Answer. Yes. Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Question. What do you learn in this prayer?

Answer. That God is to be adored and loved as my heavenly Father; that all things necessary for my life and comfort are his gift; that he will be merciful unto me, and forgive my sins; that he is able to save and defend me in all danger both of soul and body.

Question. How many sacraments are there in the Church?

Answer. Two: Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Question. What means the word sacrament?

Answer. An outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace.

Question. What is the outward sign in baptism?

Answer. Water, which is used either by dipping the person in it, or pouring or sprinkling it upon him; and the Minister at the same time saying, I baptize thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Question. What inward grace does this outward sign represent?

Answer. A death unto sin, and a new spiritual birth unto righteousness.

Question. What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer. Repentance of all their sins, and faith in Christ as their Saviour.

Question. Why then are infants baptized?

Answer. That their parents may bind themselves to train them up to a Christian life, and as children of God.

Question. For what was the ordinance of the Lord's Supper ordained?

Answer. To be a continual remembrance of him; of all he did and said; of his sufferings, his death, his resurrection; and of all the benefits which the world enjoys in the completion of his mission on earth.

Question. What are the outward signs of this ordinance?

Answer. Bread and wine.

Question. What is the signification of these elements?

Answer. They are to represent the body and blood of Christ; and while we eat of them, we are in holy remembrance to feed upon the bread of life which he gives to the world.

Question. What ought all to do before coming to this supper?

Answer. They ought seriously to examine themselves; to repent of their sins, and steadfastly to purpose to lead a new life; to have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and to be in charity with all men.

Question. What do you understand the Church of Christ to be?

Answer. The fellowship or society of all Christians, visible or invisible.

Question. What is the visible Church, and what is the invisible?

Answer. The visible Church consists of all who profess the name of Christ; and the invisible Church consists of all who are at heart children of God, even the blessed company of all faithful people, having the fellowship of the Spirit.

ORDER OF CONFIRMATION.

OR, ADMISSION TO THE COMMUNION.

¶ Those about to be Confirmed, that is, to receive the Communion of the Church, shall have first received the Sacrament of Baptism; if not in infancy, or at some subsequent period, then now. To any such persons, standing in order before the Minister, he shall say:

DEARLY beloved, you have come hither to receive the consecration of the Church, and to renew the solemn vow made at your baptism. Renouncing, therefore, the fellowship of evil, will you endeavor to learn of Jesus Christ, and coöperate in the study and practice of his religion?

¶ Each of those about to be confirmed shall audibly answer:

It is my earnest desire and prayer to be enabled so to do.

¶ The Minister shall then say:

BELOVED in the Lord, on this your open and voluntary confession of Christ, I welcome you to the communion of his Church. And may God the Father grant that this union, formed on earth, may be continued in heaven, and fit us for the fellowship of the saints in light.

Receive the blessing of the Church.

Then those about to be confirmed kneeling at the Altar, the Minister may lay his hand upon the head of every one, severally, saying:

DEFEND, O Lord, this thy child with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine forever, and may daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he come unto thy everlasting kingdom. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Our help is in the name of the Lord;

Answer. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Minister. Blessed be the name of the Lord;

Answer. Henceforth, world without end.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayers.

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ Then the Lord's Prayer to be said after the Minister; all reverently bowing the head, or kneeling.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say the following Collects:

ALMIGHTY and ever-living God, who makest us both to will and to do those things that be good and acceptable unto thy divine Majesty; we would offer our humble supplications unto thee for these thy servants who have made a public profession of the Christian faith, and expressed their earnest desire and prayer to be enabled to fulfil their duties as disciples of Jesus Christ. Let thy fatherly hand ever be over them: let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them: guide and help, strengthen and sanctify them, we beseech thee; that, by the living bond of obedience and charity, they may be united to thee and thy beloved Son. Amen.

LORD of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; graft in our hearts the love of thy name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow this Benediction:

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ Here may follow a hymn of welcome, or a hymn of peace, unannounced.

THE FORM

SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

The persons to be married and their friends being assembled, the Minister shall say:

DEARLY beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God and in the face of this company, to join together this Man and this Woman in holy matrimony; which is an honorable estate, instituted of God; adorned and sanctioned by Christ's presence at the marriage of Cana of Galilee; and set forth and commended in the Christian Scripture as innocent and honorable to all who engage in it not unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly, and soberly, with purity of heart, and in the fear of God. Therefore, if any man can show just cause why these two may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

¶ Then speaking to the persons about to be married, the Man standing at the Woman's right hand, the Minister shall say:

I REQUIRE and charge you both, as ye will answer before him who knoweth the secrets of all hearts, that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, ye do now confess it.

¶ If no impediment be alleged, the Minister shall say to the Man:

WILT thou have this Woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor, and keep her in sickness and in health, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man shall answer:

Then shall the Minister say to the Woman:

New ILT thou have this Man to thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love him, comfort him, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health, so long as ye both shall live?

¶ The Woman shall answer:

I will.

Then shall the Minister say:

Who giveth this Woman to be married to this Man?

118 SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

¶ Then shall they give their Troth to each other in this manner: — The Minister, receiving the Woman at her father's or friend's hand, shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and say after him as followeth:

I M. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance: and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they loose their hands, and the Woman, with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister:

I N. take thee M. to my wedded husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance: and thereto I give thee my troth.

¶ The Minister, having received the Ring from the Man, shall deliver it back to him, to put it upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand. This being done, and the married persons again joining hands, the Minister shall say:

THIS Ring is consecrated as the token and pledge of your mutual truth and affection; and worn upon the hand of the woman becomes the accepted symbol of that spiritual union which it is the office of marriage to secure. And by it you declare yourselves husband and wife, according to God's holy ordinance.

¶ The Husband and Wife shall severally answer:
We do.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

FORASMUCH as M. and N. have consented together in wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have engaged and pledged themselves to each other, and have declared the same, by giving and receiving a ring, I pronounce them henceforth Husband and Wife.

¶ Then the Minister shall join their right hands together, and say:

Those whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

Let us pray.

O ETERNAL God, giver of all spiritual grace, send thy blessing upon thy servants, whom we bless in thy name. Enable them to perform the covenant which they have now made in thy presence. May they dwell together in peace and love, in holiness and comfort; in the Christian faith, and in the practice of all Christian virtues. Bless, preserve, and keep them; fill them with all spiritual benediction and grace; that they may so live together in this life, that in the world to come they may enter into the life everlasting. We ask this in the name, and as the disciples of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say this Benediction:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep our hearts and minds through Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE ORDER

FOR

THE VISITATION OF THE SICK.

¶ The Minister may begin with saying:

PEACE be to this house, and to all that dwell in it.

Then the Minister may exhort the Sick Person after one of these forms, or in any other that he may think suitable.

DEARLY beloved, you are persuaded that neither sickness nor crosses come by chance to any one.

But you believe that it is God who sendeth them, without whose Providence they fall not on us.

You acknowledge God to be most wise, and to suffer nothing to befall us but for our good.

Acknowledge, therefore, that this his present visitation is for your benefit, and say in your heart:

I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou, of very faithfulness, hast caused me to be troubled.

DEARLY beloved, you know and confess that God beareth the affection of a father towards his children. You know also that a father, whether he dote upon his child, or whether he chasten him, continueth a father in both cases; and loveth him in the one no less than in the other.

Think the same of God, as touching yourself: that while he gave you good days, he loved you; and that now he sendeth you some evil, he loveth you still; and would not have sent you this evil, but to be a cause unto you of greater good; that, being called home thereby, you might be at peace.

¶ Then shall the Minister, kneeling down, say the two Prayers following.

O LORD, look down from heaven: behold, visit, and relieve this thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy; give him comfort and sure confidence in thee; support him under all the trials of his present sickness; relieve his pains, if it seem good in thy sight; and keep him in perpetual peace and safety through thy great loving-kindness in Jesus Christ. Amen.

HEAR us, almighty and most merciful God and Saviour: extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant who is grieved with sickness. Sanctify, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly correction to him: that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance; that, if it shall be thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health, he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear and to thy glory; or else give him grace so to take thy visitation, that, after this life is ended, he may dwell with thee and with thy glorified Son in life everlasting. Amen.

¶ Or, instead of these two Prayers, one of the following.

LORD, gracious and merciful, dispose the heart of thy servant, we beseech thee, to receive with all meekness this gentle and fatherly correction which thou hast laid upon him; that he may endure it patiently and with willing obedience, submitting himself with heart and mind to thy holy will. May it please thee of thy great goodness, O Lord, to assist him in all his anguish and suffering: and although the tongue and voice be not able to execute their office in setting forth thy glory, do thou stir his heart to aspire unto thee, the fountain of all goodness; and fill his mind with the sweet and blessed promises which thou hast made to us in Christ Jesus thy Son. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, merciful and gracious, thou hast now called thy servant to the fellowship of the cross. Grant, we earnestly beseech thee, that his sufferings may be so sanctified by thy grace, as indeed to unite him more closely to thy blessed Son. O heavenly Father, support the spirit of thy child who now flies to thee for succor: make him ready to receive any fatherly chastening thou shalt see fit to appoint; that he may either, upon the return of health, run a new race of holiness and well-doing; or, passing hence by the gate of death, be prepared to enter into the joy of his Lord. Amen.

¶ Then this Prayer for forgiveness.

MOST merciful God, who, according to the multitude of thy mercies, dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent that thou rememberest them no more; open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him, most loving Father, whatsoever hath decayed by his own carnal will and frailness. Consider his contrition; accept his tears; strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit; and when it shall be thy will to take him hence, receive him into thy heavenly presence, and into everlasting fellowship with thy most dearly beloved Son. Amen.

Then may be read one or more of the following Selections:

Y soul, wait thou only upon God: for my expectation is from him.

He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning.

Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

For thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand and save me.

Therefore will I not fear, for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him.

Fear thou not; for I am with thee, saith the Lord.

Be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Let not your heart be troubled, saith the Lord, neither let it be afraid. I will never leave thee nor forsake thee.

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted.

For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the Lord; thoughts of peace, and not of evil.

If thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, he will comfort thee.

And though your sins he as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee.

I will turn unto the Lord, and put my trust in him.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

The flesh and the heart faileth, but God is the strength of the heart, and our portion forever.

Whether we live, we live unto the Lord, or whether we die, we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lord's. Trust therefore in the Lord, for he doeth all things well.

¶ When the Person sick is aged.

O GOD, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not; for thou art my hope.

Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honor all the day.

Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.

He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.

Here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

And I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister say this Benediction:

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee. The Lord bless thee and keep thee. The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

Short Pragers,

TO BE USED BY THE SICK.

FATHER in heaven, I accept this sickness from thy hands, and entirely resign myself to thy blessed will, whether it be for life or for death. In the spirit of thy Son Jesus Christ may I say, Not my will, but thine be done; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Amen.

O EVER-BLESSED Lord God, I offer up to thee all that I now suffer, or may have yet to suffer, to be united to the sufferings of thy beloved Son, and so sanctified and rendered acceptable to thee. Amen.

O HOLY and ever-blessed Father, I desire to praise thee always, in sickness as well as in health: I desire to join my heart and my voice with the whole Church of heaven and earth, in blessing thy holy name forever and ever. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Sick Child.

ALMIGHTY God, and merciful Father, to whom alone belong the issues of life and death; look down from heaven, we humbly beseech thee, with the eyes of mercy upon this child now lying on the bed of sickness. Visit him, O Lord, with thy salvation; deliver him in thy good appointed time from his bodily pain; and if it shall be thy pleasure to prolong his days here on earth, grant that he may live to thee, serving thee faithfully and doing good in his generation: but whenever it may please thee to take away his spirit from this world, may he be received into those heavenly habitations, where the souls of the righteous enjoy perpetual rest and felicity. Grant this, O Lord, for thy great mercy in Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Sick Person when there appear Small Hopes of Recovery.

FATHER of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; we fly unto thee for succor in behalf of this thy servant here lying in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. May a steadfast faith in thy Son Jesus support and comfort him. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past; that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. We know, O Lord, that there is no work impossible with thee; and that, if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us. Yet, forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near, so fit and prepare him, we beseech thee, against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace, and in thy favor, his soul may be received into the joys and blessedness of that glorious immortality which thy Son Jesus Christ hath brought to light. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after their departure from this world; we humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator and most merciful heavenly Father; most humbly beseeching thee of thy great love to receive him into that better country which thou hast revealed to us by thy Son Jesus Christ. Teach us who survive to see in this and other like instances of mortality, how frail and uncertain our own condition is; and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Persons troubled in Mind or in Conscience.

O BLESSED Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforts; we beseech thee, look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted servant. Thou makest him to possess his former iniquities: thy hand lieth heavily upon him; and his soul is full of trouble. But, O merciful God, who hast caused thy holy word to be written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the holy Scriptures might have hope; give him a right understanding of himself and of thy fatherly chastenings; that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it anywhere but in thee. Be thou his refuge in temptation, and help him in his infirmities by thy Holy Spirit. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax. Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeasure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. And as thou forgivest much, so may he love much. Lift up, O Lord, the light of thy countenance upon us, and give us peace, through thy fatherly love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Collect for the Communion of the Sick.

ALMIGHTY, ever-living God, maker of mankind, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chasten every one whom thou dost receive; we beseech thee to have mercy upon this thy servant visited with thy hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health, if it be thy gracious will; and whensoever he shall be called away from this world, may he have part in the joys and blessedness of the life to come. Amen.

¶ Thanksgiving for Recovery.

MOST mighty and gracious God, thy mercy is over all thy works, and hath especially gladdened our hearts in the recovery of our dear brother from dangerous sickness. Thou redeemest our life from destruction, and crownest us with loving-kindness and tender mercies. Suffer us not, O Lord, to be in the number of those who are forward to ask in the time of need, but careless to show themselves thankful when mercy is bestowed. Make us as desirous to come unto thee with the sacrifices of praise, as we were ready to beg help and comfort in the day of our necessity; and may we show our thankfulness, not only by words, but by earnest obedience to thy holy commandments. Grant, we beseech thee, that we may not so love this life, as to be unwilling to leave it when thou callest us; but, living or dying, may we be thine through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer that may be said after a Death in a Family.

O GOD, our heavenly Father, who hast seen fit to take our dear brother from this world; grant that we sorrow not as those who have no hope; but that we may put our trust in the promises of holy Scripture which saith, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; Yea, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them. May we rest in these words, and in thy fatherly mercy, and wait patiently for that happy reunion, the hope of which is now our sweet comfort. O God, may each of us be among those whose deeds and words show that they seek a country, even our everlasting home. Forgive us wherein we have sinned against thee: fit us to live or to die. let it be the work of our lives to do thy holy will, and follow after thee as dear children. Hear us, gracious and merciful Lord God, who hast blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. Amen.

THE ORDER

FOR

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

¶ When the Procession is entering the Church, the Minister shall read these sentences of Scripture: all standing.

AM the resurrection and the life; saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. John xi. 25, 26.

The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Job i. 21.

All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: but the word of the Lord endureth forever. 1 Peter i. 24, 25.

¶ Then shall be said or sung one of the following Psalms:

Psalm xxxix.

CRD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity.

Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence and be no more.

Psalm xc.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

We spend our years as a tale that is told.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

¶ Then shall follow this Lesson from 1 Cor. xv.

NOW is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death, by man also came the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star different from another star in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:

It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I show you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

¶ Or, the Minister may read one or more of the following Lessons:

St. John xiv.

LET not your heart be troubled, saith the Lord, our Redeemer; ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, ? will come again and receive you unto myself; that, where I am there ye may be also.

And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live ye shall live also.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

2 Cor. iv. v.

FOR our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

If so being clothed we shall not be found naked.

For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Rev. xxi. xxii.

A ND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death; neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.

And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true.

And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, forever and ever.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you.

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

St. Mark x. 13-16. St. Matt. xviii. 10, 14.

A ND they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

If there be an Address, it may be introduced here. And then the Minister may offer Prayer in his own words, or say one of the following Prayers.

ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; we thank thee for having given to us the dear friend whom thou hast now taken away; and for the blessed assurance that, though he will not come to us, we shall go to him. O grant, we beseech thee, that we, with all those who are departed in the true faith of thy holy name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss in thine eternal glory. Amen.

LORD God, holy Father, be thou blessed both now and evermore: for all that thou doest is good. Thou hast seen fit to take away one who is dear to us: give us, we beseech thee, the spirit of filial submission. Enable us to say, It is well, for thou didst it. May we feel that thy will is better than anything we can desire for ourselves; and find comfort in holy and happy thoughts of the unseen world. Bring home to our hearts thy Son's promises to those who fall asleep in him.

O Lord, teach us how to live so as to please thee. May nothing cause us to forget that we are pilgrims and sojourners here, as our fathers were; and may we set our chief affections on those things which are above. Merciful Father, forgive us our sins, and raise us from the death of sin to a life of righteousness.

O Lord God, fill our hearts with gratitude for thy great loving-kindness to us. When thou takest away, we see how much thou hast given. We thank thee for the sweet memory of blessings which are for a season withdrawn from us, and for the many blessings which yet remain, and for hopes which no earthly troubles can overshadow. Hear, accept, and answer these our prayers, which we would offer to thee in the faith and spirit of Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then the Lord's Prayer, to be said after the Minister.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Here may be sung a Hymn of Consolation (unannounced).

¶ Then the Minister, on the way to the Grave, or in the body of the Church, shall say:

WE know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 Cor. v. 1.

I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in the grave; neither wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see corruption. Psalm xvi. 8-10.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Psalm xxiii. 4.

When they come to the Grave, while the Body is made ready to be laid into the Earth, the Minister shall say:

MAN that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of trouble. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay. In the midst of life we are in death. Of whom may we seek for succor, but of thee, O Lord, in whom our souls do rest and hope?

¶ When the Body has been lowered into the Grave, the Minister shall say:

FORASMUCH as it hath pleased God of his great mercy to take unto himself the life of our dear friend here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground: earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of a resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who will change this corruptible body, that it may be like unto his glorious body; according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

¶ Then shall be said:

HEARD a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

¶ At the Burial of a Young Child, may be said, instead of the above:

HEARD the voice of Jesus, saying, Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

¶ Then shall the Minister say the following Collect:

O. GOD, our heavenly Father, grant that we sorrow not as those who know not the promises of thy holy Gospel: but may we look forward to the great gathering of thy faithful servants and children into their everlasting home. O thou in whom we trust, help us by thy grace, that we may live as the heirs of this blessed and glorious hope, which thou hast set before us in thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ And this Benediction:

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

AT THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD AT SEA -

¶ The above Office may be used: only, when the Body is lowered into the Sea, the following words shall be said, instead of those to be said when the Body is lowered into the Ground. WE now commit the body of our dear departed friend to the deep, in the blessed hope that as he has borne the image of the earthy, so also he shall bear the image of the heavenly, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS

THAT MAY BE USED AT SEA.

¶ During a Storm.

MOST gracious and merciful Lord God, who dwellest in heaven, but beholdest all things below; look down on us thy servants, who in our great distress cry unto thee for help. Send forth thy word to calm the fury of the waves, which seem ready to swallow us up. Yet, O ever-blessed Father, let not the suddenness of our present extremity find us far away from thee; but may our trust in thee be stronger than our fears, though the waters roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Give us grace, we earnestly beseech thee, that if our lives be spared, we may devote them to thy most holy service as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ; and that if this should be our last day here below, we may through thy mercy be received into the blessed shelter of our everlasting home. Amen.

¶ Thanksgiving after a Storm.

CONFITEANTUR DOMINO. Psalm cvii.

O THAT men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men.

Let them offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving; and declare his works with rejoicing.

They that go down to the sea in ships, and do business in great waters,

These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heaven; they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble; and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men.

Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

¶ Collect of Thanksgiving.

MOST mighty and gracious Lord God, thy loving-kindness is over all thy works, but in special manner hath been extended to us, whom thou hast so powerfully and wonderfully delivered. Thou hast showed us terrible things, and wonders in the deep; and we bless and glorify thy name for thy mercy in saving us, when we were ready to perish. Make us, we beseech thee, as truly sensible now of thy mercy, as we were then of the danger: and give us hearts always ready to express our thankfulness, not only by words, but also by our lives, in being more obedient to thy holy commandments. Bring us, O Lord, to our haven in safety, and fill us with thy Holy Spirit, that we whom thou hast saved may serve thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life, as humble disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

DOMESTIC WORSHIP;

OB

FORMS OF PRAYER TO BE USED IN FAMILIES.

Morning Prager.

¶ At some regular hour all the members of the household should assemble themselves together: when a portion of the Sacred Scriptures may be read; after which, the head of the family, or some other suitable person, shall say as follows; all kneeling:

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Acknowledgment of God's mercy and preservation, especially through the night past.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being; we, thy needy creatures, render thee our humble praises, for thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day, and especially for having delivered us from the dangers of the past night. To thy watchful providence we owe it * (that no disturbance hath come night us or our dwelling; but that we are brought in safety to the beginning of this day). For these thy mercies, we bless and magnify thy glorious name; humbly beseeching thee to accept this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; which we render through him who lay down in the grave, and rose again for us, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Dedication of soul and body to God's service, with a resolution to be growing daily in goodness.

AND since it is of thy mercy, O gracious Father, that another day is added to our lives; we here dedicate both our souls and our bodies to thee and thy service, in a sober, righteous, and godly life: In which resolution, do thou, O merciful God, confirm and strengthen us; that, as we grow in age, we may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

^{*} When disturbances of any kind befall a Family, instead of this, say, that, notwithstanding our dangers, we are brought in safety to the beginning of this day.

¶ Prayer for grace to enable us to perform that resolution.

DUT, O God, who knowest the weakness of our nature, and the manifold temptations which we daily meet with; we humbly beseech thee to have compassion on our infirmities, and to give us the constant assistance of thy Holy Spirit; that we may be effectually restrained from sin, and excited to our duty. Imprint upon our hearts such a dread of doing wrong, and such a grateful sense of thy goodness to us, as may make us both afraid and ashamed to offend thee. And, above all, keep in our minds a lively remembrance of our own weakness, that so we may continually find our strength in thee, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ For grace to guide and keep us the following day, and for God's blessing on the business of the same.

IN particular, we implore thy grace and protection for the ensuing day. Keep us temperate in our meats and drinks, and diligent in our several callings. Grant us patience under any afflictions thou shalt see fit to lay on us, and minds always contented with our present condition. Give us grace to be just and upright in all our dealings; quiet and peaceable; full of compassion; and ready to do good to all men, according to our abilities and opportunities. Direct us in all our ways,* (and prosper the works of our hands in the business of our several stations.) Defend us from all dangers and adversities; and be graciously pleased to take us, and all things belonging to us, under thy fatherly care and protection. These things, and whatever else thou shalt see necessary and convenient to us, we humbly beg, in the name and through the mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Evening Prager.

¶ The Family being together, a little before Bedtime, let the head of the family, or any other suitable person, say as follows (all kneeling):

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give

* On Sunday Morning, instead of this, say, and let thy Holy Spirit accompany us to the place of thy public worship, making us serious and attentive, and raising our minds from the thoughts of this world to the consideration of the next, that we may fervently join in the prayers and praises of thy Church, and listen to our duty with honest hearts, in order to practise it.

us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ Confession of sins, with a prayer for contrition and pardon. MOST merciful God, who art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity, and hast promised forgiveness to all those who confess and forsake their sins; we come before thee in an humble sense of our own unworthiness, acknowledging our manifold transgressions of thy righteous But, O gracious Father, who desirest not the death of a sinner, look upon us, we beseech thee, in mercy, and forgive us all our transgressions. Make us deeply sensible of the great evil of them; and work in us a hearty contrition; that we may obtain forgiveness at thy hands, who art ever ready to receive humble and penitent sinners: for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ Prayer for grace to reform and grow better.

A ND lest, through our own frailty, or the temptations which encompass us, we be drawn again into sin, vouchsafe us, we beseech thee, the direction and assistance of thy Holy Spirit. Reform whatever is amiss in the temper and disposition of our souls; that no unclean thoughts, unlawful designs, or inordinate desires, may rest there. Purge our hearts from envy, hatred, and malice; that we may never suffer the sun to go down upon our wrath; but may always go to our rest in peace, charity, and good-will, with a conscience void of offence towards thee and towards men: That so, we may be preserved pure and blameless, unto the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

The Intercession.

AND accept, O Lord, our intercessions for all mankind. Let the light of thy gospel shine upon all nations; and may as many as have received it, live as becomes it. Be gracious unto thy Church; and grant that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may serve thee faithfully. Bless all in authority over us; and so rule their hearts and strengthen their hands, that they may punish wickedness and vice, and maintain thy true religion and virtue. Send down thy blessings, temporal and spiritual, upon all our relations, friends, and neighbors. Reward all who have done us good, and pardon all those who have done or wish us evil, and give them repentance and better minds. Be merciful to all who are in any trouble; and do thou, the God of pity, administer to them according to their several necessities, for his sake who went about doing good, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ The Thanksgiving.

TO our prayers, O Lord, we join our unfeigned thanks for all thy mercies; for our being, our reason, and all other endowments and faculties of soul and body; for our health, friends, food, and raiment, and all the other comforts and conveniences of life. Above all. we adore thy mercy in sending thy only Son into the world to redeem us from sin, and in giving us the knowledge and sense of our duty towards thee. We bless thee for thy patience with us, notwithstanding our many and great provocations; for all the directions, assistances, and comforts of thy Holy Spirit; for thy continual care and watchful providence over us through the whole course of our lives; and particularly for the mercies and benefits of the past day: Beseeching thee to continue these thy blessings to us; and to give us grace to show our thankfulness in a sincere obedience to his laws, through whom we received them all, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Prayer for God's Protection through the night following.

In particular, we beseech thee to continue thy gracious protection to us this night. Defend us from all dangers and mischiefs, and from the fear of them; that we may enjoy such refreshing sleep, as may fit us for the duties of the following day. Make us ever mindful of the time when we shall lie down in the dust; and grant us grace always to live in such a state that we may never be afraid to die: So that living and dying we may be thine, through faith in thy Son Christ Jesus, in whose name we offer up these our imperfect prayers. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

PRAYERS TO BE SAID IN PRIVATE

Morning.

¶ Prayer.

O MY God, my only good, and the author of my being; help me to give thee my heart, and to submit myself to thy holy will, and to give myself to thy divine service now and forever. Amen.

¶ An act of Adoration.

O GOD, the Lord of heaven and earth, I prostrate myself before thee. With all the angels I adore thee. I acknowledge thee to be my Creator and Sovereign Lord: and I render to thee the homage of my being and life.

¶ An act of Faith.

O MY God, I firmly believe all the sacred truths contained in the gospel of thy dear Son, and I believe in him as the true Teacher, Example, and Saviour. I believe in the Holy Spirit; in the Holy Church; in the forgiveness of sins; in the resurrection from the dead, and the life everlasting.

¶ An act of Hope.

O MY God, I rely on thy infinite goodness and promises: and by the assistance of thy heavenly grace, I hope to obtain pardon for my sins, and an abundant entrance into thy kingdom of love, through thy Son Jesus Christ our Saviour.

¶ An act of Love.

O MY God, I love thee above all things, with my whole heart and soul. Thou art Perfect Goodness, and art deserving of all my love. I love Jesus, thy beloved Son, my Lord and Redeemer; and I also love my neighbor as myself.

¶ An act of Thanksgiving.

THANK thee, O heavenly Father, for having created me in thy own image and likeness, and for having preserved me to this day. I thank thee for thy great love in Jesus Christ my Saviour, and for that Holy Spirit which cleanseth my soul from all sin.

O most merciful God, I thank thee for keeping me in thy care this night, and granting me this day to serve thee.

I earnestly desire to join my soul with all saints and angels, to praise and thank thee for thy infinite goodness.

¶ An act of Contrition.

O MY God, mercifully look upon me. I am weak and sinful. My conscience reproaches me with many shortcomings. I am truly sorry for all my sins, and do sincerely repent for having offended against thy great love. O turn unto me, and save me. Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

¶ A resolution to avoid evil and to do good.

I WILL endeavor this day to follow the example of my blessed Lord: to be mild, humble, chaste, patient, charitable, and resigned. I am resolved to watch over myself, and to live a better life for the time to come. I will strive not to offend with my tongue. I will turn away my eyes, that they may not see vanity, and will be particularly attentive not to fall this day into the sins which do easily beset me. By the gracious assistance of the Holy Spirit, I will struggle against my accustomed failings, and pray for a fairer mind, and a purer heart, that I may pass all my life in the service of my heavenly Father.

¶ The Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

168

¶ Prayer.

GOD, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered, make me deeply sensible of my needs; and let thy Holy Spirit lead me in holiness and righteousness all the days of my life: that when I shall have served thee in my generation, I may be gathered unto my fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience, in the communion of the Church, in the confidence of a certain faith, in the comfort of a reasonable, religious, and holy hope; in favor with thee, my God, and in perfect charity with the world. All which I ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers for Night.

¶ Prayer.

HEAVENLY Father, look down in mercy upon me, thy weak and erring child. Thou hast brought me to the close of another day.

and grant now that I may lie down to rest in perfect peace with thee, and in perfect charity with all the world. Of thy great goodness hear my prayers, and to thee be all glory and worship, now and forever. Amen.

¶ Repeat the acts of Advration, Faith, Hope, and Love, as in the Morning Exercises.

¶ An act of Thanksgiving.

THANK thee, O heavenly Father, for having preserved me this day. I thank thee for thy great goodness; for thy wise, though mysterious providence; and, above all, for thine unspeakable gift of a Saviour, and for the assurance of life and immortality through him. I thank thee for the gracious assistance of thy Holy Spirit, and do earnestly beseech thee to give me grace to show my gratitude and love, an a sincere obedience to thy will.

Let us pray that God will make known our sins to us.

O MOST merciful Father, remove my darkness, and show me the sins I have this day committed, in thought, word, and action. Make me deeply sensible of the evil of them; and work in me a hearty contrition, that I may obtain forgiveness at thy hands, who art ever ready to receive the humble and penitent;

170 PRAYERS TO BE SAID IN PRIVATE.

through Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ An act of Self-Examination.

HAVE I been neglectful of my religious duties; and by irreverence and inattention to divine things grieved the Holy Spirit?

Have I sinned against my neighbor, by rash judgments, hatred, envy, detraction, bad example, scandal, want of respect, charity, fidelity?

Have I sinned against myself, by vanity, and lies; by thoughts, desires, discourse, or actions contrary to purity?

¶ An act of Contrition.

BEHOLD me, O Lord, and mercifully regard me now that I am filled with grief at the sight of my iniquities. I have sinned against thee, who art so good and so worthy of my love. Have pity on me and spare me. O turn away thy face from my sins, and blot out all my transgressions. I am heartily sorry for, and do sincerely repent of them.

¶ A resolution to amend.

PRAYER.

O LORD, heavenly Father, grant me grace to reform, and never more to offend thee. Help me to renounce all my sin, to shun all occasions of it, and to walk henceforth in the path of thy commandments. O God, heavenly Father, hear my prayer:

Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon me:

Graciously hear me, O Lord. Amen.

¶ Let us recommend our rest to God.

VISIT, we beseech thee, O Lord, this habitation, and drive from it all the snares of the enemy. Let thy holy angels dwell therein to preserve us in peace, and may thy blessing be upon us forever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless, O Lord, the repose I am about to take to renew my strength, that I may be better able to serve thee. May all the good on earth and in heaven pray for me, that I may be kept in safe and pure ways all the days of my life.

May the divine assistance remain always with us. Amen.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS.

¶ To be read in verses, alternately, by Minister and People.

¶ At the close of each reading of the Psalms, shall be repeated the following Doxology:

Minister. Now unto the King Eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God,

People. Be honor and glory, through Jesus Christ, forever and ever. Amen.

PSALM IV.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness; thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame, and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Know this, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man who is godly; when I call upon the Lord he will hear me.

Stand in awe, and sin not; commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord.

There are many who say, Who will show us any good?

Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than when their corn, and wine, and oil increased.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest, for it is thou, O Lord, only, who makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

GIVE ear unto my words, O Lord; consider my meditation.

O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God; for unto thee will I make my prayer.

My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord; early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

For thou art a God who hast no pleasure in wickedness; neither shall any evil dwell with thee.

Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight; for thou hatest all those who work iniquity.

Thou shalt destroy those who speak falsehood; the Lord will abhor both the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

But as for me, I will come into thy house, in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; make thy way plain before my face.

174 SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS.

Let all those who put their trust in thee rejoice; they shall ever be giving of thanks, because thou defendest them; they who love thy name shall be joyful in thee.

For thou, Lord, wilt give thy blessing unto the righteous; and with thy favor wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak; O Lord, heal me, for my heart is vexed.

My soul is also sorely troubled; but thou, O Lord, how long?

Return, O Lord, deliver my soul; O save me for thy mercies' sake.

For in death there is no remembrance of thee; in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my pillow to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

Mine eye is consumed because of grief; but the Lord will hear the voice of my weeping.

The Lord hath heard my supplication; the Lord will answer my prayer.

PSALM VII.

O LORD my God, in thee have I put my trust; save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me:

Lest he devour my soul like a lion, and tear it in pieces, while there is none to help.

O Lord my God, if I have done this thing; or if there be any wickedness in my hands;

If I have rewarded evil unto him who dealt friendly with me; (yea, I have delivered him who without any cause is mine enemy;)

Then let mine enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lay mine honor in the dust.

The Lord shall judge the people; give sentence with me, O Lord, according to my righteousness, and according to the integrity that is in me.

O let the wickedness of the ungodly come to an end; but guide thou the just.

For the righteous God trieth the very hearts and reins.

My help cometh of God, who preserveth those who are true of heart.

God is a righteous judge; and God is angry with the wicked every day.

I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteousness; and I will praise the name of the Lord Most High.

PSALM VIII.

O LORD our God, how excellent is thy name in all the world! thou who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies; that thou mightest still the enemy and the revengeful.

When I consider thy heavens, even the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

Thou madest him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet;

All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field:

The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our God, how excellent is thy name in all the world!

PSALM IX.

WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

I will be glad and rejoice in thee; I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.

Thou hast rebuked the nations, and destroyed the ungodly; thou hast put out their name forever and ever.

Desolations have consumed the enemy forever; and as to the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memory is perished with them.

But the Lord shall endure forever; he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

And he shall judge the world in righteousness, and minister true judgment unto the people.

The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed, even a refuge in time of trouble.

And they who know thy name will put their trust in thee; for thou, Lord, hast never failed those who seek thee.

O praise the Lord, who dwelleth in Zion: show the people of his doings.

For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them, and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made; in the same net which they hid privily is their own foot taken.

The Lord is known to execute judgment; the ungodly is insnared in the work of his own hands.

The wicked shall be turned into the pit, and all the people who forget God.

For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the afflicted shall not perish forever.

Arise, O Lord, and let not man prevail; let the nations be judged in thy sight.

Put them in fear, O Lord; that the nations may know themselves to be but men.

PSALM XII.

HELP, Lord, for the godly man ceaseth, for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

They speak vanity every one with his neighbor; they do but flatter with their lips, and dissemble in their double heart.

The Lord shall root out all deceitful lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; we are they who ought to speak; who is lord over us?

Now for the oppression of the needy, and because of the deep sighing of the poor,

I will arise, saith the Lord, and will help every one from him who swelleth against him, and will set him at rest.

The words of the Lord are pure words; even as the silver which from the earth is tried, and purified seven times in the fire.

Thou shalt keep them, O Lord; thou shalt preserve them from this generation forever.

PSALM XV.

LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

Even he who leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He who hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbor, nor slandered his neighbor.

He who despiseth a worthless person, but honoreth those who fear the Lord.

He who sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.

He who hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken a bribe against the innocent.

Whoso doeth these things shall never fall.

PSALM XVI.

PRESERVE me, O God; for in thee have I put my trust.

O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou art my God; I have nothing good without thee.

The saints who are on the earth, and the excellent, in them is all my delight.

They who run after another god shall have great trouble.

Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer; neither make mention of their names with my lips.

The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup; thou shalt maintain my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will thank the Lord for giving me counsel; my secret thoughts also instruct me in the night season. I have set the Lord alway before me; for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth; my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in the grave neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see cor ruption.

Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; and at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XIX.

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handy-work.

Day unto day uttereth speech; night unto night showeth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.

Their sounds are gone out into all lands; and their words unto the ends of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, who cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

He goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and his circuit is unto the end of it again; and there is nothing hid from his heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice

the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth forever; the judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

Moreover, by them is thy servant warned; and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? O cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight,

O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM XXIII.

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

PSALM XXIV.

THE earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they who dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place?

Even he who hath clean hands and a pure heart, and who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them who seek him, even of them who seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? It is the Lord, strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

PSALM XXVI.

BE thou my judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently; my trust hath been also in the Lord; therefore shall I not fall.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes, and I will walk in thy truth.

I have not dwelt with vain persons; neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

I have hated the congregation of the wicked; and will not sit among the ungodly.

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord, and so will I go to thine altar;

That I may show the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honor dwelleth.

O shut not up my soul with the sinners, nor my life with the bloodthirsty;

In whose hands is wickedness, and their right hand is full of bribes.

But as for me, I will walk innocently; O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

My feet tread in a straight path; I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

PSALM XXVII.

THE Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

Though an host of men encamp against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rise up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will seek after; even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle; yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me upon a rock of stone.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness; I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; have mercy upon me, and hear me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

O hide thou not thy face from me, nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succor; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Though my father and my mother forsake me, yet the Lord taketh me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

I should utterly have fainted, but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

O wait thou on the Lord; be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

PSALM XXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion; deliver me in thy righteousness.

Bow down thine ear to me; make haste to deliver me.

And be thou my strong rock, and house of defence, that thou mayest save me.

For thou art my strong rock and my castle; be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy name's anke.

Into thy hands I commend my spirit; for thou hast redeemed me. O Lord, thou God of truth.

I have hated those who regard lying vanities, and my trust hath been in the Lord.

I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy; for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

O how plentiful is thy goodness which thou aast laid up for those who fear thee, and that thou hast prepared for those who put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men!

Thou shalt hide them in the place of thine own presence from the insults of men; thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

Thanks be to the Lord; for he hath shown me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

For I had said in my haste, I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice of my prayer when I cried unto thee.

O love the Lord, all ye his saints; for the Lord preserveth those who are faithful, and plenteously rewardeth the proud doer.

Be strong, and he shall establish your heart, all ye who put your trust in the Lord.

PSALM XXXIV.

WILL alway give thanks unto the Lord; his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

O praise the Lord with me, and let us magnify his name together.

I sought the Lord, and he heard me; yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

They looked unto him and were enlightened; and their faces were not ashamed.

Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him; yea, and saveth him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about those who fear him, and delivereth them.

O taste, and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the Lord, ye who are his saints; for those who fear him lack nothing.

The lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Come, ye children, and hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

What man is he who desireth to live, and would fain see good days?

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips that they speak no guile.

Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayer.

The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

The Lord is nigh unto those who are of a contrite heart, and will save such as are of an humble spirit.

Great are the troubles of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

He keepeth all his bones; so that not one of them is broken.

188 SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS.

But misfortune shall slay the ungodly; and they who hate the righteous shall be desolate.

The Lord delivereth the souls of his servants; and none of those who put their trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XL.

I WAITED patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

He brought me also out of the horrible pit, and out of the mire and clay, and set my feet upon the rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even a thanksgiving unto our God.

Many shall see it, and fear, and shall put their trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man who hath set his hope in the Lord, and turned not unto the proud, and such as go about with lies.

Many, O Lord my God, are the wondrous works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be numbered unto thee.

If I should declare them, and speak of them, they would be more than I am able to express.

Sacrifice and meat offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened.

Burnt-offerings and sacrifice for sin hast thou not required; then said I, Lo, I come.

In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God; I delight to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation; lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth from the great congregation.

Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord; let thy loving-kindness and thy truth alway preserve me.

For innumerable troubles are come about me; my sins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to look up; yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me; make haste, O Lord, to help me.

Let all those who seek thee be joyful and glad in thee; and let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be praised.

As for me, I am poor and needy; but the Lord careth for me.

Thou art my helper and redeemer; make no long tarrying, O my God.

PSALM XLII.

A S the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

190

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

When I remember this, I pour out my soul within me; for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy day.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God, for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me, while I remember thee from the land of Jordan and Hermon, from the Mountain Mizar.

Deep calleth unto deep, at the noise of thy water-falls; all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Once the Lord commanded his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song was with me; thanksgiving to the God of my life.

Now I say unto God, My refuge, why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning, because of the oppression of the enemy.

As with a sword in my bones my enemies reproach me, while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance and my God.

PSALM XLVL

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof rage and swell, and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed; God shall help her, and that right early.

The heathen raged, and the kingdoms were moved; but God uttered his voice, and the earth melted away.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord, what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.

He maketh wars to cease in all the world; he breaketh the bow, and snappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be still then, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM LI.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness; and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified in thy sentence, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, thou requirest truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all my transgressions.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of thy help again, and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it thee; thou delightest not in burntofferings.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

PSALM LV.

HEAR my prayer, O God, and hide not thyself from my petition.

Take heed unto me, and hear me; how I mourn in my prayer, and am troubled.

My heart is disquieted within me, and the fear of death is fallen upon me.

Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.

And I said, O that I had wings like a dove; for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

Lo, then would I get me away far off, and remain in the wilderness.

I would make haste to escape from the stormy wind and tempest.

But yet I will call upon God, and the Lord shall save me.

194

In the evening, and morning, and at noonday will I pray, and that instantly; and he shall hear my voice.

O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee, and shall not suffer the righteous to fall forever.

PSALM LVII.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trusteth in thee; and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this calamity be overpast.

I will call unto the most high God, even unto the God who will perform all things for me.

He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him who would swallow me up.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, and let thy glory be above all the earth.

My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise.

Awake up, my glory; awake, lute and harp; I myself will awake right early.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people, and I will sing unto thee among the nations.

For the greatness of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, and let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM LXL

HEAR my cry, O God; give ear unto my prayer.

From the ends of the earth will I call upon thee, when my heart is in heaviness.

O set me up upon the rock that is higher than I; for thou hast been my hope, and a strong tower for me against the enemy.

I will dwell in thy tabernacle forever, and my trust shall be under the covering of thy wings.

For thou, O Lord, hast heard my desires, and hast given an heritage unto those who fear thy name.

Thou shalt grant the king a long life, that his years may endure throughout all generations.

He shall dwell before God forever; O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness, that they may preserve him.

So will I alway sing praise unto thy name, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

MY soul truly waiteth upon God; for of him cometh my salvation.

He only is my strength and my salvation; he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

My soul, wait thou still upon God; for my hope is in him.

He truly is my strength and my salvation; he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

196 SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS.

In God is my health and my glory, the rock of my might, and in God is my trust.

O put your trust in him alway, ye people; pour out your hearts before him; for God is our hope.

As for the men of low degree, they are but vanity; the men of high degree are deceit; laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity itself.

O trust not in wrong and robbery; give not yourselves unto vanity; if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

God spake once, and twice I have also heard the same, that power belongeth unto God.

Also to thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy; for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee.

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee, in a barren and dry land, where no water is;

That I might behold thy power and glory, as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Because thy loving-kindness is better than life itself, my lips shall praise thee.

Thus will I magnify thee as long as I live, and lift up my hands in thy name.

My soul shall be satisfied even as it were with marrow and fatness, when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips. Have I not remembered thee in my bed, and thought upon thee when I was waking?

Because thou hast been my helper, therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul hangeth upon thee; thy right hand hath upholden me.

PSALM LXV.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion, and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

O thou who hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

My misdeeds prevail against me; O be thou merciful unto our sins.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and receivest unto thee; he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

Thou shalt show us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation; thou who art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of those who are afar off upon the sea;

Who in thy strength settest fast the mountains, and art girded about with power;

Who stillest the raging of the sea, and the noise of its waves, and the madness of the people. They also who dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth shall be afraid at thy tokens; thou who makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

Thon visitest the earth and blessest it; thou

makest it very plenteous with the river of God, which is full of water.

Thou preparest their corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

Thou waterest her furrows, thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof, thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness, and thy clouds drop fatness.

They drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness, and the little hills rejoice on every side.

The mountains shall be clothed with sheep; the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn that they shall laugh and sing.

PSALM LXVI.

O BE joyful in God, all ye lands; sing praises unto the honor of his name; make his praise to be glorious.

Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

For all the world shall worship thee, sing of thee, and praise thy name.

O come hither, and behold the works of God; how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men!

He turned the sea into dry land, so that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoice in him.

He ruleth with his power forever; his eyes behold the people; and such as are rebellious shall not be able to exalt themselves.

O praise our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

Who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip.

For thou, O God, hast proved us; thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the snare, and laidst trouble upon us.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest us out into a place of refreshment.

O come hither and hearken, all ye who fear God, and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.

I called unto him with my mouth, and gave him praises with my tongue.

If I incline unto wickedness with my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

But God hath heard me, and considered the voice of my prayer.

Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer, nor turned his mercy from me.

PSALM LXXVII.

WILL cry unto God with my voice, even unto God will I cry with my voice; and O that he would hearken unto me!

In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord;

200

I stretched out my hands to him all the night long; my soul refused comfort.

When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God; when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

I consider the days of old, and remember the years that are past.

I call to remembrance my song in the night; I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirit.

Will the Lord absent himself forever? and will he be no more entreated?

Is his mercy clean gone forever? and is his promise come utterly to an end for everinore?

Hath God forgotten to be gracious? and will he shut up his loving-kindness in displeasure?

And I said, It is mine own infirmity; I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most. High.

I will remember the works of the Lord, and call to mind thy wonders of old time.

I will think also of all thy works, and my talk shall be of thy doings.

Thy way, O God, is holy; who is so great a God as our God?

Thou art the God who doest wonders, and hast declared thy power among the nations.

Thou hast mightily delivered thy people, even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee, and were afraid; the depths also were troubled.

The clouds poured out water, the air thundered, and thine arrows went abroad.

The voice of thy thunder was heard round about; the lightnings shone upon the ground; the earth was moved and shook withal.

Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM LXXXIV.

O HOW amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

As the sparrow findeth an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young, so let me dwell at thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they who dwell in thy house; they will be alway praising thee.

Blessed are the men whose strength is in thee, in whose heart are thy ways.

For them the desert valley of Baka hath fountains; and they are refreshed with abundant showers.

They will go from strength to strength, till every one of them appeareth before God, in Zion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; nearken, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our defender, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.

For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and glory; and no good thing shall he withhold from those who live a godly life.

O Lord God of hosts, blessed is the man who putteth his trust in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

I ORD, thou art become gracious unto thy land; thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people, and covered all their sins.

Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure, and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.

Turn us then, O God our Saviour, and let thine anger cease from us.

Wilt thou be displeased at us forever? and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

Wilt thou not turn again and quicken us, that thy people may rejoice in thee?

Show us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

I will hear what God the Lord will speak; for he will speak peace to his people and his saints; only let them not return to their folly again.

For his salvation is nigh those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall flourish out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Yea, the Lord shall show his loving-kindness; and our land shall yield her increase.

Righteousness shall go before him, and shall keep his path continually.

PSALM LXXXVI.

B^{OW} down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me, for I am poor and in misery.

Preserve thou my soul, for thou art my hope; my God, save thy servant who putteth his trust in thee.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord, for I will call daily upon thee.

Comfort the soul of thy servant; for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For thou, Lord, art good and gracious, and of great mercy unto all those who call upon thee.

Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer, and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee; for thou hearest me.

Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; there is not one who can do as thou doest.

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship thee, O Lord, and shall glorify thy name.

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things; thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth; O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy name.

I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and will praise thy name for evermore.

For great is thy mercy toward me, and thou hast delivered my soul from the terrors of death.

O God, the proud are risen against me, and the congregations of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eves.

But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of thine handmaid.

Show some token upon me for good, that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed; because thou, Lord, hast holden me, and comforted me.

PSALM XCI.

WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold; my God, in whom I will trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his wings, and thou shalt be safe under them; his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

But with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the ungodly.

Because thou hast made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil happen unto thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands, that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder

the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honor.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

PSALM CIII.

BLESS the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;

Who forgiveth all thy iniquities, and healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness;

Who satisfieth thy life with good things, so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all those who are oppressed.

He showed his ways unto Moses, his works unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, longsuffering, and of great goodness.

He will not alway chide; neither keepeth he his anger forever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children; even so the Lord pitieth those who fear him.

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are but dust.

The days of man are but as grass; he flour-isheth as a flower of the field.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth forever and ever upon those who fear him, and his righteousness upon children's children;

Even upon such as keep his covenant, and think upon his commandments to do them.

The Lord hath established his throne in heaven; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

O praise the Lord, ye angels of his, ye who excel in strength, ye who fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words.

O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts, ye servants of his who do his pleasure.

O praise the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion; praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

PSALM CXL

I WILL give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart, secretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all those who have pleasure therein.

His works are worthy to be praised and had in honor, and his righteousness endureth forever.

He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He hath given food unto those who fear him; for he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

He hath shown his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are true.

They stand fast forever and ever, for they are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption unto his people, he hath confirmed his covenant forever; holy and reverend is his name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they who obey him; his praise endureth forever.

PSALM CXVIII.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever.

Let Israel now say that his mercy endureth forever.

Let the house of Aaron now say that his mercy endureth forever.

Yea, let those now who fear the Lord say that his mercy endureth forever.

I called upon the Lord in trouble, and the Lord heard and delivered me.

The Lord is on my side; I will not fear; what can man do unto me?

It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

The Lord is my strength and my song, and is become my salvation.

The voice of joy and salvation is in the dwellings of the righteous; the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

The right hand of the Lord is exalted; the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord hath chastened and corrected me; but he hath not given me over unto death.

Open me the gates of holiness, that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord, into which the righteous shall enter.

I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders refused is become the head-stone in the corner.

This is the Lord's doing; and it is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Save now, O Lord; O Lord, send us now prosperity.

Blessed be he who cometh in the name of the Lord! We bless you, ye who are of the house of the Lord.

Thou art my God, and I will thank thee; thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, and his mercy endureth forever.

PSALM CXIX.

BLESSED are they who are undefiled in the way, and walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they who keep his testimonies, and seek him with their whole heart;

Who do no wickedness, but walk in his ways. Thou hast charged that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.

O that my ways were so directed, that I might keep thy statutes!

So shall I not be confounded, while I have respect unto all thy commandments.

I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

I will keep thy laws; O forsake me not utterly.

WHEREWITHAL shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto, according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee; O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.

Thy words have I hid within my heart, that I should not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord; O teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I been telling of all the judgments of thy mouth.

I have had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies as in all manner of riches.

I meditate on thy commandments, and have respect unto thy ways.

My delight shall be in thy statutes, and I will not forget thy word.

O DEAL kindly with thy servant, that I may live and keep thy word.

Open thou mine eyes, that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.

I am a stranger upon earth; O hide not thy commandments from me.

My soul trembles for the very fervent desire that it hath alway unto thy judgments.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PSALMS. 212

Thou hast rebuked the proud; and cursed are they who do err from thy commandments.

O turn from me reproach and contempt: for I have kept thy testimonies.

Though princes did sit and speak against me, thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.

For thy testimonies are my delight and my counsellors.

PSALM CXXI.

WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh even from the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; and he who keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he who keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper; the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not smite thee by day, neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; yea, it is even he who shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

I WAS glad, when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself.

For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, according to the law of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

For there is the seat of judgment, even the throne of the house of David.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper who love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will say, Peace be within thee.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

PSALM CXXIII.

UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou who dwellest in the heavens.

Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress;

Even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us; for we are utterly despised.

Our soul is filled with the insolence of the prosperous, and with the despitefulness of the proud.

PSALM CXXX.

OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint.

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it?

But there is mercy with thee; therefore shalt thou be feared.

I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him; in his word is my trust.

My soul waiteth for the Lord, more than they that watch for the morning; yea, more than they who watch for the morning.

O Israel, trust in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his sin.

PSALM CXXXVI.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord; for he is good, and his mercy endureth forever.

O give thanks unto the God of all gods; for his mercy endureth forever.

O thank the Lord of all lords; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who only doeth great wonders; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who by his excellent wisdom made the heavens; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who laid out the earth above the waters; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who hath made great lights; for his mercy endureth forever.

The sun to rule by day; for his mercy endureth forever.

The moon and the stars to govern the night; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who remembereth us when we are in trouble; for his mercy endureth forever.

And hath delivered us from our enemies; for his mercy endureth forever.

Who giveth food to all flesh; for his mercy endureth forever.

O give thanks unto the God of heaven; for his mercy endureth forever.

PSALM CXXXIX.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me; thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thoughts afar off.

Thou compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For lo, there is not a word in my tongue, but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

Thou dost encompass me behind and before, and layest thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me; I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I climb up into heaven, thou art there; if I go down to the grave, thou art there also.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there also shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee; but the night is as clear as the day; the darkness and light to thee are both alike.

I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvellous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

My bones were not hid from thee, when I was made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book were all my members written;

Which day by day were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

How dear are thy thoughts unto me, O God! O how great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand; when I awake I am still with thee.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; prove me, and examine my thoughts.

Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXLVII.

O PRAISE the Lord; for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God; yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem, and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth those who are broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

He telleth the number of the stars; and calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power; yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

The Lord lifteth up the meek; and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto our God;

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth, and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains;

Who giveth food unto the cattle, and feedeth the young ravens who cry.

He hath no pleasure in the strength of the horse; neither delighteth he in the force of man.

But the Lord's delight is in those who fear him and put their trust in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates; and hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders; and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat. He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth; and his word is instantly obeyed.

He giveth snow like wool; he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels; who can stand before his cold?

He sendeth out his word and melteth them; he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation; neither hath the heathen knowledge of his laws. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXLVIII.

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens; praise him in the height.

Praise him, all ye angels of his; praise him, all his hosts.

Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all ye stars and light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters of the skies.

Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he commanded and they were created.

He hath made them fast forever and ever; he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

Praise the Lord upon earth, ye dragons, and all deeps;

Fire and hail, snow and vapors, wind and storm, fulfilling his word;

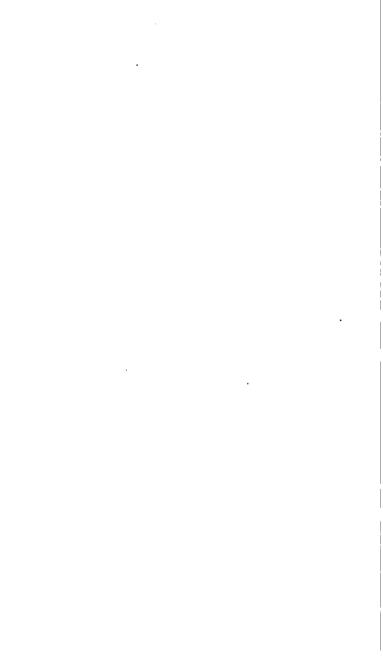

Mountains and all hills, fruitful trees and all cedars;

Beasts and all cattle, creeping things and feathered fowls;

Kings of the earth and all people, princes and all judges of the world;

Young men and maidens, old men and children; praise the name of the Lord; for his name alone is excellent, and his praise is above heaven and earth.

He shall increase the glory of his people; all his saints shall praise him, even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him. Praise ye the Lord.

Sabbath Morning.

A NOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun:
Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day which God hath blest.

- 2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise, As grateful incense, to the skies, And draw from heaven that sweet repose, Which none but he that feels it knows!
- 3 This heavenly calm within the breast Is the dear pledge of glorious rest, Which for the church of God remains, The end of cares, the end of pains.

 In holy pleasures pass away:
 How sweet, a Sabbath thus to spend,
 In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

HOW sweet upon this sacred day,
The best of all the seven,
To cast our earthly thoughts away,
And think of God and heaven!

- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray
 Our sins may be forgiven!
 With filial love and trust to say,
 "Father, who art in heaven!"
- 3 How sweet the words of peace to hear From him to whom 't is given To wake the penitential tear, And lead the way to heaven!
- 4 And if, to make our sins depart,
 In vain the will has striven,
 He who regards the inmost heart
 Will send his grace from heaven.

That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast
And these rejoicing eyes.

WELCOME, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest!
We hail thy glad return:

From low delights and mortal toys
We soar to reach immortal joys.

IT is the hour of prayer:
Draw near and bend the knee,
And fill the calm and holy air
With voice of melody!
O'erwearied with the heat
And burden of the day,
Now let us rest our wandering feet,
And gather here to pray.

 But smiles from loving eyes
 Have been around our way,
 And lips on which a blessing lies
 Have bidden us to pray.

 Prayer to the soul is nigh;
 Though dark may be our lot,
 Our eyes be dim with care,
 These saddening thoughts shall trouble not

prayer.

3 Follow with reverent steps the great example
Of Him whose holy work was doing good;
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.

4 Thus shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangor
Of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Level shall tread out the heleful first of anger

Love shall tread out the baleful fires of anger, And in its ashes plant the tree of peace.

Praise from all Creatures.

YE tribes of Adam, join
With heaven, and earth, and seas,
And offer notes divine
To your Creator's praise:
Ye holy throng of angels bright!
In worlds of light, begin the song.

- 2 Thou sun with dazzling rays!
 And moon that rules the night!
 Shine to your Maker's praise,
 With stars of twinkling light.
 His power declare, ye floods on high!
 And clouds that fly in empty air!
- 3 The shining worlds above
 In glorious order stand,
 Or in swift courses move,
 By his supreme command:
 He spake the word, and all their frame
 From nothing came, to praise the Lord.

4 His praise, ye worlds on high,
Display, with all your spheres,
Amid the darksome sky,
When silent night appears.
O, let his works declare his name
Through all the universal frame!

Praise to the Great Jehobah.

BE thou, O God, exalted high; And as thy glory fills the sky, So let it be on earth displayed, Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.

- 2 O God, our hearts are fixed and bent Their thankful tribute to present; And, with the heart, the voice we'll raise To thee, our God, in songs of praise.
- 3 Thy praises, Lord, we will resound To all the listening nations round; Thy mercy highest heaven transcends; Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.
- 4 Be thou, O God, exalted high; And as thy glory fills the sky, So let it be on earth displayed, Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.

PRAISE ye the Lord around whose throne All heaven in ceaseless worship waits, Whose glory fills the worlds unknown— Praise ye the Lord from Zion's gates.

- 2 With mingling souls and voices join; To him the swelling anthem raise; Repeat his name with joy divine, And fill the temple with his praise.
- All-gracious God, to thee we owe
 Each joy and blessing time affords,—
 Might, life, and health, and all below,
 Spring from thy presence, Lord of lords.
- 4 Thine be the praise, for thine the love
 That freely all our sins forgave,
 Pointed our dying eyes above,
 And showed us life beyond the grave.

MAKE a noise unto the Lord,
And, all ye lands adore him;

 And enter with thanksgiving:
 Be thankful all, and bless his name;
 For the Lord is good forever.

WITH one consent, let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay, with hallowed mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise;

2 Assured that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed,—
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock which he delights to feed.

- 3 O, enter, then, his temple gate;
 Thence to his courts devoutly press;
 And still your grateful hymns repeat,
 And still his name with praises bless;
- 4 For he's the Lord, supremely good; His mercy is forever sure; His truth, which always firmly stood, To endless ages shall endure.

Let our vesper hymn be blending

Telling still the ancient story,—
Their Creator's changeless love.

Now our wants and burdens leaving
To his care, who cares for all,
Cease we fearing, cease we grieving;
At his touch our burdens fall.
As the darkness deepens o'er us,
Lo, eternal stars arise;
Hope and Faith and Love rise glorious,
Shining in the spirit's skies.

THROUGH the changes of the day
Kept by thy sustaining power,
Offering of thanks we pay,

Praises to thy name belong,
Source and Giver of all good;
While we lift our evening song
Fill our souls with gratitude!

2 From the dangers which have frowned,
From the snares in secret set,
We have, through thy mercy, found
Safety and deliverance yet.

Let thy mercy and thy might
Keep us to another day.

If here thy presence be;
Then midnight shall be morning hour,

Glimpse of a fairer life to be,

Nor vainly shall thy children call
On thee, our Father and our Friend!

2 Kept by thy goodness through the day, Thanksgiving to thy name we pour; Night o'er us, with its stars,—we pray Thy love, to guard us evermore! In grief, console; in gladness, bless; In darkness, guide; in sickness, cheer; Till, perfected in righteousness, Before thy throne our souls appear!

At evening time let there be light.

- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth:
 Whilst all the stars which round her burn,
 And all the planets in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- What though, in solemn silence, all Move round this dark terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amidst their radiant orbs be found; In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice; Forever singing, as they shine,—
 "The hand that made us is divine."

The surpassing Glory of God.

SINCE o'er thy footstool here below
Such radiant gems are strown,
O what magnificence must glow,
Great God, about thy throne!
So brilliant here these drops of light—
There the full ocean rolls—how bright!

2 If night's blue curtain of the sky— With thousand stars inwrought, Hung like a royal canopy With glittering diamonds fraught— Be, Lord, thy temple's outer veil, What splendor at the shrine must dwell!

- 3 The dazzling sun at noonday hour —
 Forth from his flaming vase
 Flinging o'er earth the golden shower
 Till vale and mountain blaze —
 But shows, O Lord, one beam of thine:
 What, then, the day where thou dost shine!
- 4 O how shall these dim eyes endure
 That noon of living rays!
 Or how our spirits, so impure,
 Upon thy glory gaze!
 Anoint, O Lord, anoint our sight,
 And fit us for that world of light.

 And clouds by the celestial artist painted,
 Its pictures bright.
- 4 Its choir, all vocal things, whose glad devotion In one united hymn is heavenward sped; The thunder-peal, the winds, the deep-mouthed ocean,

Its organ dread!

- 5 The face of nature its God-written Bible,
 Which all mankind may study and explore,
 While none can wrest, interpolate, or libel
 Its living lore.

 Knows no distinction, suffers no recall.

Knows no distinction, suffers no recall, Sheds his impartial favor and affection Alike on all.

The Beautiful.

THE world has much of beautiful
If man would only see;
A glory in the beaming stars,
The lowest budding tree;
A splendor from the farthest east
Unto the farthest west;
Ay! everything is beautiful,
And we are greatly blest!

2 The world is good and beautiful, We all may know it well; For there are many thousand tongues That every day can tell What love has cheered them on their way, Each earthly ill above; It only needs a goodly heart To know that all is love!

Uniting with Nature in God's Praise.

THERE seems a voice in every gale,
A tongue in every opening flower,
Which tells, O Lord, the wondrous tale
Of thine indulgence, love, and power.
The birds that rise on quivering wing
Appear to hymn their Maker's praise,
And all the mingling sounds of Spring
To thee a general pæan raise.

2 And shall my voice, great God, alone Be mute 'mid Nature's loud acclaim? No! let my heart, with answering tone,
Breathe forth in praise thy holy name.
And Nature's debt is small to mine—
Thou bad'st her being bounded be;
But (matchless proof of love divine!)
Thou gav'st immortal life to me.

3 The Saviour left his heavenly throne
A ransom for our souls to give;
Man's suffering state he made his own,
And deigned to die that we might live.
But thanks and praise for love so great
No mortal tongue can c'er express;
Then let me bow before thy feet,
In silence love thee, Lord, and bless.

OD, thou art good! each perfumed flower,
The waving field, the dark green wood,
The insect fluttering for an hour, —
All things proclaim that God is good.

- 2 I hear it in each breath of wind:
 The hills that have for ages stood,
 And clouds with gold and silver lined,
 All still repeat that God is good.
- 3 The countless hosts of twinkling stars,
 That sing his praise with light renewed;
 The rising sun each day declares,
 In rays of glory, God is good.

4 The moon that walks in brightness says
That God is good! and man, endued
With power to speak his Maker's praise,
Doth still repeat that God is good.

LET us with a joyful mind
Praise the Lord, for he is kind—
For his mercies shall endure
Ever faithful, ever sure.

- 3 Caused the golden-tressed sun All the day his course to run; And the moon to shine by night 'Mid her spangled sisters bright.
- 4 All things living he doth feed; His full hand supplies their need; Let us therefore warble forth His high majesty and worth.

Nature a Temple.

THE turf shall be my fragrant shrine;
My temple, Lord, that arch of thine;
My censer's breath the mountain airs,
And silent thoughts my only prayers.
My choir shall be the moonlit waves,
When murmuring homeward to their caves,
Or when the stillness of the sea,
E'en more than music, breathes of thee.

- 2 I'll seek, by day, some glade unknown, All light and silence, like thy throne; And the pale stars shall be, at night, The only eyes that watch my rite. Thy heaven, on which 't is bliss to leok, Shall be my pure and shining book, Where I can read, in words of flame, The glories of thy wondrous name.
- There's nothing bright, above, below, From flowers that bloom, to stars that glow, But in its light my soul can see Some feature of thy Deity.

 There's nothing dark, below, above, But in its gloom I trace thy love, And meekly wait that moment when Thy touch shall turn all bright again.

The two Temples.

WHEN up to nightly skies we gaze,
Where stars pursue their endless ways,

We think we see, from earth's low clod, The wide and shining home of God.

- 2 But could we rise to moon or sun, Or path where planets duly run, Still heaven would spread above us far, And earth, remote, would seem a star.
- 3 This earth, with all its dust and tears, Is his no less than yonder spheres; And rain-drops weak, and grains of sand, Are stamped by his immediate hand.
- 4 But more than this, thou God benign, Whose rays on us unclouded shine; Thy breath sustains you fiery dome, But man is most thy favored home.
- 5 We view those halls of painted air, And own thy presence makes them fair; But dearer still to thee, O Lord! Is he whose thoughts with thine accord.

 That makes my guilty conscience clean,
 Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
 And gives a free but large reward.

T is the one true light,
When other lamps grow dim,
Twill never burn less purely bright,
Nor lead astray from Him.
It is Love's blessed band,
That reaches from the throne
To him — whoe'er he be — whose hand
Will seize it for his own!

2 It is the golden key
Unto celestial wealth,
Joy to the sons of poverty,
And to the sick man, health!
The gently proffered aid
Of one who knows and best
Supplies the beings he has made
With what will make them blessed.

Travelling across that holy ground,
With God and angels near,
There rests the weary head,
There age and sorrow go;
And how it smooths the dying bed,

What sothem do they sing?—
The radiant clouds have backward rolled,
And angels smite the string.
"Glory to God!"—bright wings

Spread glist'ning and afar,
And on the hallowed rapture rings
From circling star to star.

2 "Glory to God!" repeat
The glad earth and the sea;
And every wind and billow fleet
Bears on the jubilee.
Where Hebrew bard hath sung,
Or Hebrew seer hath trod;
Each holy spot has found a tongue:
"Let glory be to God."

3 Soft swells the music now
Along that shining choir,
And every seraph bends his brow
And breathes above his lyre.
What words of heavenly birth
Thrill deep our hearts again,
And fall like dew-drops to the earth?
"Peace and good-will to men!"

4 Soft! — yet the soul is bound
With rapture like a chain:
Earth, vocal, whispers them around,
And heaven repeats the strain.

With every golden string;
For unto us this day is born
A Saviour and a King!

Star of Bethlebem.

WHEN, marshalled on the nightly plain,
The glittering host bestud the sky,
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.
Hark! hark!—to God the chorus breaks,
From every host, from every gem;
But one alone the Saviour speaks,—
It is the Star of Bethlehem.

- 2 Once on the raging seas I rode, The storm was loud, the night was dark,— The ocean yawned — and rudely blowed The wind that tossed my foundering bark. Deep horror then my vitals froze, Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem; When suddenly a star arose,— It was the Star of Bethlehem.
- 3 It was my guide, my light, my all;
 It bade my dark forebodings cease;
 And, through the storm and danger's thrall,
 It led me to the port of peace.
 Now safely moored my perils o'er,
 I'll sing, first in night's diadem,

Forever and forevermore, The Star — the Star of Bethlehem!

"That pe through his Poberty might be Mich."

O^N the dark wave of Galilee
The gloom of twilight gathers fast,
And o'er the waters drearily
Descends the fitful evening blast.

- 2 The weary bird hath-left the air,
 And sunk into his sheltered nest;
 The wandering beast has sought his lair,
 And laid him down to welcome rest.
- 3 Still, near the lake, with weary tread,
 Lingers a form of human kind;
 And on his lone, unsheltered head,
 Flows the chill night-damp of the wind.
- 4 Why seeks he not a home of rest?
 Why seeks he not a pillowed bed?
 Beasts have their dens, the bird its nest:
 He hath not where to lay his head.
- 5 Such was the lot he freely chose,
 To bless, to save the human race;
 And through his poverty there flows
 A rich, full stream of heavenly grace.

The Moly Guest.

MESSIAH Lord! who, wont to dwell In lowly shape and cottage cell, Didst not refuse a guest to be At Cana's poor festivity.

- 2 O, when our soul from care is free, Then, Saviour, would we think on thee; And, seated at the festal board, In fancy's eye behold the Lord.
- Then may we seem, in fancy's ear, Thy manna-dropping tongue to hear, And think, —" If now his searching view Each secret of our spirit knew!"
- .4 So may such joy, chastised and pure, Beyond the bounds of earth endure; Nor pleasure in the wounded mind Shall leave a rankling sting behind.

CORD, in whose might the Saviour trod The dark and stormy wave; . And trusted in his Father's arm, Omnipotent to save;

- 2 When darkly round our footsteps rise The floods and storms of life; Send thou thy Spirit down to still The dark and fearful strife.

 The ocean-path we'll dare;
 Though waves around us rage and foam,
 Since thou art present there.

MRA HEMANS.

"Beace! Be still!"

FEAR was within the tossing bark,
When stormy winds grew loud;
And waves came rolling high and dark,
And the tall mast was bowed.

- 2 And men stood breathless in their dread,
 And baffled in their skill—
 But One there was who rose and said
 To the wild sea, "Be still!"
- 3 Thou that didst rule that angry hour,
 And tame the tempest's mood—
 Oh! send thy Spirit forth in power,
 O'er our dark souls to brood!
- 4 Thou that didst bow the billow's pride,
 Thy mandates to fulfil—
 Speak, speak to passion's raging tide,
 Speak and say,—" Peace! be still!"

Christ's Loneliness.

BIRDS have their quiet nest,
Foxes their holes, and man his peaceful bed;
All creatures have their rest,

But Jesus had not where to lay his head.

2 And yet he came to give The weary and the heavy-laden rest, To bid the sinner live And soothe our griefs to slumber on his breast.

3 Come, give me rest, and take
The only rest on earth thou lovest, within
A heart, that for thy sake
Lies bleeding, broken, penitent for sin.

Christ's Butry Into Jerusalem.

RIDE on, ride on in majesty!
Hark! all the tribes hosannas cry!
Thy humble beast pursues his road,
With palms and scattered garments strowed.

- 2 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
 In lowly pomp ride on to die!
 O Christ! thy triumphs now begin,
 O'er captive death and conquered sin.
- 3 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
 The wingéd squadrons of the sky
 Look down with sad and wondering eyes,
 To see th' approaching sacrifice.
- 4 Ride on, ride on in majesty!

 Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;

 The Father on his sapphire throne

 Expects his own anointed Son!

Palm Sunday.

HE calls us to a day of gladness,
Who came to us, the King's own Son;

Go forth with boughs of palm to meet him, And him with loud hosannas own.

- 2 Praise him who once himself did humble, In love to save our human race; Praise him who all the world doth gladden With God his Father's boundless grace.
- 3 This day of joy to all creation My happy soul shall have her psalm, And bear her branches of thanksgiving As those bore branches once of palm.
- 4 Let every village, every city
 In happy tumult sing his name,
 Since even infant lips are shouting
 "Blessed is he, the King who came!"

Prince of Peace.

O ZION! lift thy raptured eye,
The long-expected hour is nigh:
The joys of Nature rise again —
The Prince of Salem comes to reign!

- 2 See, Mercy, from her golden urn, Pours a glad stream to them that mourn; Behold, she binds, with tender care, The bleeding bosom of despair.
- 3 He comes he cheers the trembling heart —
 Night and her spectres pale depart:
 Again, the day-star gilds the gloom —
 Again, the bowers of Eden bloom!

4 O Zion! lift thy raptured eye,
The long-expected hour is nigh —
The joys of Nature rise again —
The Prince of Salem comes to reign!

LORD! in thy garden agony,
No light seemed on thy soul to break,
No form of seraph lingered nigh,
Nor yet the voice of comfort spake,—

- 2 Till, by thy own triumphant word,
 The victory over ill was won;
 Till the sweet, mournful cry was heard,
 "Thy will, O God, not mine, be done!"
- 8 Lord, bring these precious moments back, When, fainting, against sin we strain; Or in thy counsels fail to track Aught but the present grief and pain.
- 4 In weakness, help us to contend;
 In darkness yield to God our will;
 And true hearts, faithful to the end,
 Cheer by thy holy angels still!

Sprist Cruciffed.

HAVE we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah! look how patiently he hangs—
Jesus, our love, is crucified!

- 2 What was thy crime, my dearest Lord?
 By earth, by heaven, thou hast been tried,
 And guilty found of too much love;
 Jesus, our love, is crucified!
- 3 Found guilty of excess of love, It was thine own sweet will that tied Thee tighter far than helpless nails; Jesus, our love, is crucified!
- 4 O break, O break, hard heart of mine!
 Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
 His Pilate and his Judas were;
 Jesus, our love, is crucified!

A broken heart, a fount of tears —
 Ask, and they will not be denied,
 A broken heart love's cradle is;
 Jesus, our love, is crucified!

Christ Suffering on the Cross.

- 2 "T is finished!" all that heaven foretold By prophets in the days of old; And truths are opened to our view, That kings and prophets never knew.
- 3 "T is finished!"—Son of God, thy power Hath triumphed in this awful hour; And yet our eyes with sorrow see That life to us was death to thee.

Brample in Suffering.

O to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel temptation's power;
Your Redcemer's conflict see;
Watch with him one bitter hour:

Turn not from his griefs away; Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

- Follow to the judgment-hall;
 View the Lord of life arraigned:
 O, the wormwood and the gall!
 O, the pangs his soul sustained!
 Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
 Learn of him to bear the cross.
- 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, admiring at his feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear him cry;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb
 Where they lay his breathless clay;
 All in solitude and gloom:
 Who has taken him away?
 Christ is risen; he meets our eyes:
 Saviour, teach us so to rise!

JEWS were wrought to cruel madness,
Christians fled in tears and sadness,
Mary stood the cross beside;
At its foot, her foot she planted,
By the dreadful scene undaunted,
Till the gentle suff'rer died.
Poets oft have sung her story,
Painters decked her brow with glory,
Priests her name have deified.

2 But no worship, song, or glory
Touches like the simple story,
Mary stood the cross beside!
And when under fierce oppression,
Goodness suffers like transgression,
Christ again is crucified.
But if love be there, true-hearted,
By no grief or terror parted,
Mary stands the cross beside.

Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
 Light and love upon my way,
 From the cross the radiance streaming
 Adds new lustre to the day.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend; Life, and health, and peace possessing From the sinner's dying Friend: Here alone I find my heaven, Humbly on the Lamb to gaze; Feel how much has been forgiven. To his own eternal praise!

2 Love and grief my heart dividing, Here I'll spend my latest breath; Constant still in faith abiding, Life deriving from his death: May I still enjoy this feeling, In all need, to Jesus go, Prove each day his wounds more healing, And himself more deeply know!

- 3 Hope it gives us when distrest. When we faint it gives us rest:

Satan's craft, and Satan's might, By the cross are put to flight.

4 That from sin earth might be free, Jesus bore it; so must we; Ne'er through faintness lay it down: First the cross, and then the crown!

The cross of Christ we see:
It bids our spirits, Lord! aspire

- 2 The flowers that blossom at its feet,
 They tell us of the just,Whose souls in heaven are pure and sweet,
 Though here their forms are dust.
- 3 The graves below in shadow lie, While day or night declines; The cross of Christ, uplifted high, In light forever shines.
- 4 Help us, O Lord! in grief and loss, With vision fixed above, To see, o'er that memorial cross, The Angel of thy Love.
- Help us to suffer and forgive
 Beneath thy pitying eye;
 In thee to glory while we live,
 And triumph when we die.

IFT your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man cannot die.
Vain were the terrors that gathered around him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave;

He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound him,

Resplendent in glory, to live and to save.

Loud was the chorus of angels on high,—

"The Saviour hath risen, and man shall not die."

2 Glory to God, in full anthems of joy; The being he gave us death cannot destroy. Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow, If tears were our birthright, and death were our end;

But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow, And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend. Lift, then, your voices in triumph on high, For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

JOIN all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and power,
That ever mortals knew,
Or angels ever bore:
All are too mean
Too mean to set
To speak his worth,
The Saviour forth.

2 Great prophet of our God, Our tongues shall bless thy name; By thee the joyful news
Of our salvation came,—
The joyful news | Of death subdued,
Of sins forgiven, | And peace with heaven.

Our conqueror and our king,
Thy sceptre and thy sword,
Thy reigning grace, we sing:
Thine is the power;
In willing bonds,
O make us sit
Low at thy feet.

CLORY, glory to our King!
Crowns unfading wreathe his head;
Jesus is the name we sing—
Jesus, risen from the dead;
Jesus, conqueror o'er the grave;
Jesus, mighty now to save.

2 Now behold him high enthroned, Glory beaming from his face, By adoring angels owned, God of holiness and grace: O for hearts and tongues to sing, Glory, glory, to our King!

And all the kindred nations bless;

He's King of Salem, King of peace, Nor shall his spreading kingdom cease.

- 3 In burning sands and thirsty ground, He like a river shall be found, Or lofty rock, beneath whose shade The weary traveller rests his head.
- 4 The dimness gone, all eyes shall see His glory, grace, and majesty; All ears shall hearken, and the word Of life receive, from Christ the Lord.

 Hail him who saves you by his grace,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Let every kindred, every tribe

 To him all majesty ascribe,
 And crown him Lord of all.

4 O that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

- The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain in his day;
 O may I there, though vile as he,
 Wash all my sins away!
- 3 Dear, dying Lamb, thy precious blood Shall never lose its power, Till all the ransomed church of God Be saved, to sin no more.
- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
 Thy flowing wounds supply,
 Redeeming love has been my theme,
 And shall be till I die.
- 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song
 I'll sing thy power to save,
 When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
 Lies silent in the grave.

O WHAT though our feet may not tread where Christ trod,
Nor our ears hear the dashing of Galilee's flood,

Nor our eyes see the cross that he bowed him to bear,

Nor our knees press Gethsemane's garden of prayer!

2 Yet, loved of the Father, thy spirit is near To the meek and the lowly and penitent here; . And the voice of thy love is the same, even now,

As at Bethany's tomb, or on Olivet's brow.

8 O, the outward has gone, but in glory and power
The Spirit surviveth the things of an hour;
Unchanged, undecaying, its Pentecost flame
On the heart's secret altar is burning the same.

Hall to the Lord's Anointed!
Great David's greater Son;
Hail, in the time appointed,

He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free!
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,

Whose souls, condemned and dying, Were precious in his sight.

3 O'er every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious,
All blessing, and all blest.

His name shall stand forever,
That name to us is — Love.

MARY to the Saviour's tomb,
Hasted at the early dawn,
Spice she brought, and sweet perfume,
But the Lord she loved had gone.
Trembling, while a crystal flood
Issued from her weeping eyes,
For awhile, she lingering stood,
Filled with sorrow and surprise.

2 But her sorrows quickly fled When she heard his welcome voice; Christ had risen from the dead; Now he bids her heart rejoice; What a change his word can make, Turning darkness into day; Ye who weep for Jesus' sake, He will wipe your tears away.

PRATT'S COLL

Asrael returning from Captibity.

WHY, on the bending willows hung, O Israel, sleeps thy tuneful string?— Still mute remains thy sullen tongue, And Zion's song declines to sing?

- 2 Awake! thy sweetest raptures raise;
 Let harp and voice unite their strains:
 Thy promised King his sceptre sways;
 And Jesus, thy Messiah, reigns.
- 3 No taunting foes the song require;
 No strangers mock thy captive chain,
 But friends invite the silent lyre,
 And brethren ask the holy strain.
- 4 Nor fear thy Salem's hills to wrong,
 If other lands thy triumph share:
 A heavenly city claims thy song;
 A brighter Salem rises there.
- 5 By foreign streams no longer roam;
 Nor, weeping, think of Jordan's flood:
 In every clime behold a home;
 In every temple see thy God.

LYTE

The Salbation of Asrael.

O THAT the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home!

2 How long the holy city
 Shall heathen feet profane?
 Return, O Lord, in pity;
 Rebuild her walls again.

- 3 Let fall thy rod of terror;
 Thy saving grace impart;
 Roll back the veil of error;
 Release the fettered heart.
- 4 Let Israel, home returning,
 Her lost Messiah see;
 Give oil of joy for mourning,
 And bind thy church to thee.

WILDE

The Anibersal Jald.

WHILST far and wide thy scattered sheep, Great Shepherd, in the desert stray, Thy love, by some, is thought to sleep, Unmindful of the wanderer's way.

- 2 But truth declares, they shall be found, Wherever now they darkling roam: Thy voice shall through the desert sound, And summon every wanderer home.
- 3 Upon the darkened paths of sin, Instead of terror's sword of flame, Shall love descend, — for love can win Far more than terror can reclaim.
- 4 And they shall turn their wandering feet,
 By grace redeemed, by love controlled,
 Till all at last in Eden meet,
 One happy, universal fold.

WE long to see that happy time,
That long-expected, blissful day,
When men of every name and clime
The glorious gospel shall obey.

- 2 The word of God shall firm abide, Though earth and hell should dare oppose; The stone cut from the mountain's side, To universal empire grows.
- 3 Afric's emancipated sons

 And western climes the strain prolong.
- 4 From east to west, from north to south, Immanuel's kingdom shall extend; And every man, in every face, Shall meet a brother and a friend.

BEFORE the world was made,
Or sun or planets shone,
Salvation's base was laid
In God's anointed Son,
Who came to spread the truth abroad,
And reconcile a world to God.

2 By mercy's hand upheld, Firmly his purpose stands: What love his bosom filled!

What kindness moved his hands!

What pity warmed his pleading breath,
Who meekly blest his foes in death!

3 Now raised to realms above,
Where boundless mercies shine,
Will Christ forget his love?
Forget this heart of mine?
O, no; his favors never end;
He's there, as here, the sinner's friend.

COME, sing a Saviour's power, And praise his mighty name, His wondrous love adore,
And chant his growing fame:
Wide o'er the world a King shall reign,
And righteousness and peace maintain.

2 The sceptre of his grace
He shall forever wield;
His foes before his face,
To strength divine shall yield:
The conquest of his truth shall show
What an almighty arm can do.

3 His alienated sons,
By sin beguiled, betrayed,
Shall then be born at once,
And willing subjects made:
Such numbers shall his courts adorn,

All hearts with joy be filled;
A universe with praise shall own
The countless honors of his throne.

JESUS his empire shall extend;
Beneath his gentle sway

THERE was joy in heaven!

When this goodly world to frame,
The Lord of light and mercy came:
Shouts of joy were heard on high,
And the stars sang from the sky,

"Glory to God in heaven!"

- 2 There was joy in heaven!
 There was joy in heaven!
 When of love the midnight beam
 Dawned on the towers of Bethlehem;
 And along the echoing hill
 Angels sang "On earth good will,
 And glory in the heaven!"
- There is joy in heaven!
 There is joy in heaven!
 When the sheep that went astray
 Turns again to virtue's way;
 When the soul by grace subdued
 Sobs its prayer of gratitude,
 Then is there joy in heaven!

C. M. 6 1. Anna L. Waring. Seeking a True Life.

FATHER, I know that all my life
Is portioned out to me;
The changes that must surely come
I do not fear to see;
I ask thee for the present mind,
Intent on pleasing thee.

- 2 I ask thee for a thankful love,
 Through constant watching wise,
 To meet the glad with cheerful smile,
 And wipe the weeping eyes;
 A heart at leisure from itself,
 To soothe and sympathize.
- 3 I would not have the restless will
 That hurries to and fro,
 Seeking for some great thing to do,
 Or secret thing to know;
 I would be dealt with as a child,
 And guided where to go.
- Wherever in the world I am,
 In whatsoe'er estate,
 I would have fellowship with hearts,
 To keep and cultivate;
 A work of holy love to do,
 For him on whom I wait.

For a Right Spirit.

I WANT a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill;
A soul inured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss,
Bold to take up, firm to sustain
The consecrated cross.

2 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;
A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
Forever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

3 I want a true regard,
A single, steady aim,
Unmoved by threatening or reward,
To thee and thy great name;
A zealous, just concern
For thine immortal praise;
A pure desire that all may learn
And glorify thy grace.

- 4 Act well; for every deed
 Will curse you or will bless;
 Its influence lingers near the soul,
 And makes you more or less.

 Press on to nobler life;
 Knowing that he who made you men
 Is with you in the strife.

Lead me all the journey through.

Bid my anxious fears subside;

THE world throws wide its brazen gates;
With thee we enter in;
O, grant us, in our humble sphere,
To free that world from sin!

- We have one mind in Christ our Lord,
 To stand and point above;
 To hurl rebuke at social wrong;
 But all, O God, in love.
- The star is resting in the sky;
 To worship Christ we came;

 With thy celestial flame!

 All dreaming we resign;
 We lay our offering at thy feet,—
 Our lives, O Christ, are thine!

RELIGION! in its blessed ray
All thought of hopeless sorrow flies;
Despair and anguish melt away
Where'er its healing beams arise.
How dark our sinful world would be—
A flowerless desert, dry and drear!
Did not this light, O God, from thee,
Its gloom dispel, its aspect cheer.

2 Oh! by it many a heart is soothed, Which else would be with sorrow crushed, And many a dying pillow smoothed, And sob of parting anguish hushed. Across the troubled sky of time It doth the bow of promise bend, A symbol of that cloudless clime That waits the soul when time shall end.

8 Religion I may its holy light

AS down in the sunless retreats of the ocean, Sweet flowers are springing no mortal can see,

So, deep in my soul, the still prayer of devotion, Unheard by the world, rises, silent, to thee, My God! silent, to thee,— Pure, warm, silent, to thee.

2 As still to the star of its worship, though clouded,

The needle points faithfully o'er the dim sea, So, dark when I roam, in this wintry world shrouded.

The hope of my spirit turns, trembling, to thee,
My God! trembling, to thee,
True, sure, trembling, to thee.

E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me;

- 2 Though like the wanderer,
 The sun gone down,
 Darkness be over me,
 My rest a stone;
 Yet in my dreams I'd be
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!
- 3 There let the way appear,
 Steps unto heaven;
 All that thou sendest me,
 In mercy given;
 Angels to beckon me
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!
- 4 Then with my waking thoughts,
 Bright with thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs,
 Bethel I'll raise;
 So by my woes to be
 Nearer, my God, to thee;
 Nearer to thee!
- 5 Or if on joyful wing,
 Cleaving the sky,
 Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
 Upward I fly;
 Still, all my song shall be,—
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!

What is Brager ?

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire, Uttered or unexpressed, The motion of a hidden fire That trembles in the breast.

- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh, The falling of a tear, The upward glancing of an eye, When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
 That infant lips can try,
 Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
 The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
 The Christian's native air,
 The watchword at the gates of death;
 He enters heaven with prayer.
- 5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice, Returning from his ways; While angels in their songs rejoice, And cry "Behold he prays!"

444

7 & 6's M. Edin. Lit. Review.

Pray without ceasing.

Go when the morning shineth, Go when the noon is bright, Go when the eve declineth, Go in the hush of night; Go with pure mind and feeling, Cast earthly thought away, And, in thy closet kneeling, Do thou in secret pray.

2 Remember all who love thee,
All who are loved by thee;
Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
If any such there be;
Then for thyself, in meekness,
A blessing humbly claim,
And blend with each petition
Thy great Redeemer's name.

3 Or, if 't is e'er denied thee
In solitude to pray,
Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
When friends are round thy way,
E'en then the silent breathing,
Thy spirit raised above,
Will reach his throne of glory,
Where dwells eternal love.

4 O, not a joy or blessing
With this can we compare, —
The grace our Father gave us
To pour our souls in prayer:
Whene'er thou pin'st in sadness,
Before his footstool fall;
Remember, in thy gladness,
Ilis love who gave thee all.

 All utterance faileth there;
 But listening spirits comprehend,

Our hope, our joy, our sole desire;

Yet gratefully its soft perfume
Ascendeth up to God;
And he will own the offering too,
And fill its cup with living dew.

- 2 Alone may sing the forest bird,
 Afar from human ear;
 Yet there he singeth not unheard,
 For God is listening near;
 And he will cheer the warbler's breast
 With pleasant food and quiet rest.
- 3 Thus, when, before his gracious throne,
 With grateful praise I bend,
 I feel I am not all alone,
 For God is still my friend;
 And humble though my love may be,
 He answereth it with love to me.

The Child of God.

NONE loved me, Father, with thy love,
None else can meet such needs as mine;
O, grant me, as thou shalt approve,
All that befits a child of thine;
From every doubt and fear release,
And give me confidence and peace.

- 2 Give me a faith shall never fail,
 One that shall always work by love;
 And then, whatever foes assail,
 They shall but higher courage move
 More boldly for the truth to strive,
 And more by faith in thee to live;
- 3 A heart that, when my days are glad,
 May never from thy way decline,
 And when the sky of life grows sad,
 May still submit its will to thine,—
 A heart that loves to trust in thee,
 A patient heart create in me.

514. L. M. T. W. Higginson.

I will arise and go unto my Sather.

To thine eternal arms, O God,
Take us, thy erring children, in;
From dangerous paths too boldly trod,
From wandering thoughts and dreams of sin.

2 Those arms were round our childish ways,
A guard through helpless years to be;
O, leave not our maturer days;
We still are helpless without thee.

3 We trusted hope, and pride, and strength; Our strength proved false, our pride was vain;

Our dreams have faded all at length; We come to thee, O Lord, again.

4 A guide to trembling steps yet be; Give us of thine eternal powers; So shall our paths all lead to thee, And life smile on like childhood's hours.

Sop thus Longing ?

WHY thus longing, thus forever sighing,
For the far-off, the unattained, and dim,
While the beautiful, all round thee lying,
Offers up its low, perpetual hymn.

- 2 Would'st thou listen to its gentle teaching, All thy restless yearnings it would still; Leaf, and flower, and laden bee are preaching, Thine own sphere, though humble, first to fill.
- 8 Poor indeed thou must be, if around thee Thou no ray of light and joy canst throw; If no silken cord of love hath bound thee To some little world through weal and woe.
- 4 Not by deeds that win the crowd's applauses,
 Not by works that give thee world-renown,
 Not by martyrdom or vaunted crosses,
 Canst thou win and wear the immortal crown.

 From hold to hold, it cannot stay;

 The world with glory wastes away.

OMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings,
It is the Lord, who rises
With healing in his wings;
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow,

Bring with it what it may."

Breedom in Death.

"SPIRIT, leave thy house of clay; Lingering dust, resign thy breath;

- Spirit, cast thy chains away;
 Dust, be thou dissolved in death!"
- 2 Thus the mighty Saviour speaks, While the faithful Christian dies; Thus the bonds of life he breaks, And the ransomed captive flies.
- 3 Prisoner, long detained below,
 Prisoner, now with freedom blest,
 Welcome from a world of woe;
 Welcome to a land of rest.

Death and Entrance on Ammortality.

O GOD unseen — but not unknown!

Thine eye is ever fixed on me;

I dwell beneath thy secret throne,

Encompassed by thy deity.

- 2 The moment comes when strength must fail, When, health and hope and comfort flown, I must go down into the vale And shade of death, with thee alone:
- Alone with thee: in that dread strife,
 Uphold me through mine agony,
 And gently be this dying life
 Exchanged for immortality.
- 4 Then, when th' unbodied spirit lands
 Where flesh and blood have never trod,
 And in the unveiled presence stands,
 Of thee, my Saviour and my God:

5 Be mine eternal portion this,
Since thou wert always here with me,
That I may view thy face in bliss,
And be for evermore with thee.

O FOR the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

- 2 Their ransomed spirits soar, On wings of faith and love, To meet the Saviour they adore, And reign with him above.
- With us their names shall live
 Through long-succeeding years,
 Embalmed with all our hearts can give,
 Our praises and our tears.
- 4 O for the death of those
 Who slumber in the Lord!
 O, be like theirs my last repose,
 Like theirs my last reward.

THE sage his cup of hemlock quaffed,
And calmly drained the fatal draught:
Such pledge did Grecian justice give
To one who taught men how to live.

- 2 The Christ, in piety assured, The anguish of his cross endured; Such pangs did Jewish bigots try On him who taught us how to die.
- 3 'Mid prison-walls, the sage could trust
 That men would grow more wise and just:
 From Calvary's mount, the Christ could see
 The dawn of immortality.
- 4 Who know to live, and know to die, Their souls are safe, their triumph nigh: Power may oppress, and priestcraft ban; Justice and faith are God in man.

"WITH roses crown his baby head;
Close with a kiss his tender eyes;
Strew lilies o'er his cradle bed,
For he shall wake in Paradise."

- What music fills the silent room?
 O list! the guardian angel sings:
 Our spirit rosebud springs to bloom,
 Our spirit-bird unfolds its wings."
- 3 O mother! look with inward eyes; Dear heart! at once bereaved and blest. Behold the infant cherub rise; He smiles upon an angel's breast.

4 Rejoice amid thy sorrow's tears;
Rejoice, for unto thee 't was given
To swell the music of the spheres,
To bear an angel-babe for heaven.

Death of the Righteous.

SWEET is the scene when virtue dies!
When sinks a righteous soul to rest;
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently heaves th' expiring breast!

- 2 So fades a summer cloud away, So sinks the gale when storms are o'er, So gently shuts the eye of day, So dies a wave along the shore.
- 3 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
 Where lights and shades alternate dwell;
 How bright the unchanging morn appears!
 Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!
- 4 Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
 Light from its load the spirit flies;
 While heaven and earth combine to say,
 "How blessed the righteous when he dies!"

Christ's Presence makes Death easy.

WHY should we start and fear to die?
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.

- 2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife, Fright our approaching souls away; Still we shrink back again to life, Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 Olif my Lord would come and meet, My soul should stretch her wings in haste, Fly fearless through death's iron gate, Nor feel the terrors as she passed.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
 Feel soft as downy pillows are,
 While on his breast I lean my head,
 And breathe my life out sweetly there.

No such Ching as Death.

"THERE's no such thing as death,"
To those that think aright;
Tis but the racer casting off
What most impedes his flight;
Tis but one little act,
Life's drama must contain;
One struggle keener than the rest,
And then an end of pain.

2 "There's no such thing as death;" In nature nothing dies! From each soft remnant of decay. Some forms of life arise. The faded leaf that falls, All sere and brown to earth, Erelong shall mingle with the shapes That gave the flow'ret birth.

3 "There's no such thing as death,"
 'T is but the blooming spray,
 Sinking before the coming fruit
 That seeks the summer's ray:
 'T is but the bud displaced,
 As comes the perfect flower;
 'T is faith exchanged for sight,
 And weariness for power.

Farewell Life! Effections Life!

FAREWELL life! My senses swim,
And the world is growing dim:
Thronging shadows cloud the light,
Like the advent of the night—
Colder, colder, colder still,
Upward steals a vapor chill;
Strong the earthy odor grows,—
I smell the mould above the rose.

2 Welcome life! the spirit strives!
Strength returns and hope revives;
Cloudy fears and shapes forlorn
Fly like shadows at the morn;
O'er the earth there comes a bloom;
Sunny light for sullen gloom,
Warm perfume for vapor cold—
I smell the rose above the mould!

Dry and withered, to the ground;

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

- 2 There everlasting spring abides, And never-withering flowers; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood, Stand dressed in living green; So, to the Jews, old Canaan stood, While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink,
 To cross this narrow sea,
 And linger shivering on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.
- 5 O, could we make our doubts remove, Those gloomy doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love With unbeclouded eyes;

 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the shore.

IF all our hopes and all our fears
Were prisoned in life's narrow bound;
If—travellers through this vale of tears—
We saw no better world beyond;
O, who could check the rising sigh?
What earthly thing could pleasure give?
O, who could venture then to die?
Or, who could venture then to live?

Were life a dark and desert moor, Where mist and clouds eternal spread Their gloomy veil behind, before, And tempests thunder overhead; Where not a sunbeam breaks the gloom, And not a floweret smiles beneath,— Who could exist in such a tomb? Who, dwell in darkness and in death?

3 And such were life, without the ray
Of our divine religion given;

And all is joy, and all is love,

"And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him."

Is it true that angels hear us,
When we sing our songs of praise?
That bright wings are waving near us,
When to heaven our thoughts we raise?
Is it true that when we're praying
Radiant forms are bending near?
That they know what we are saying,
And our every word can hear?

2 Is it true that in our sorrow,

They in tender love draw nigh,
Telling us of that bright morrow,
Where no tear shall dim the eye?
Do they come on holy missions
From our Father's home above,
To return with our petitions,
And our songs of praise and love?

3 Can we doubt since that bright legion
Came rejoicing to the earth,
Leaving the celestial region
To announce the Saviour's birth?
Or when in the garden bending
Christ was filled with pain and grief,
Holy angels were attending,
With their words of sweet relief?

4 And if men have heard their chorus,
On the earth in days of old,
May they not be bending o'er us,
With their crowns and harps of gold?
Let us listen to their singing,
For it is of heavenly love;
And the very air is ringing
With their praise of God above.

Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

- 2 My Father's house on high,
 Home of my soul, how near,
 At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
 Thy golden gates appear!
 Yet doubts still intervene,
 And all my comfort flies;
 Like Noah's dove, I flit between
 Rough seas and stormy skies.
- 3 "Forever with the Lord!"
 Father, if 't is thy will,
 The promise of thy gracious word,
 E'en here to me fulfil.

Be thou at my right hand,
So shall I never fail:
Uphold me, and I needs must stand;
Fight, and I shall prevail.

4 So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing "as I am known,"
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"Forever with the Lord!"

ANONYMOUR

The Biber of Life.

THERE is a pure and peaceful wave, That issues from the throne of love, Whose waters gladden as they lave The bright and heavenly courts above.

- 2 The pilgrim faint, who seems to sink
 Beneath the sultry sky of time,
 May here repose, and freely drink
 The waters of that better clime.
- 3 And every soul may here partake
 The blessings of the fount above;
 And none who drink will e'er forsake
 The crystal stream of boundless love.

C. M. W. B. O. PRABODY.

Bbening Meditations.

BEHOLD the western evening light,
It melts in deepening gloom;
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.
The winds breathe low,—the withering leaf
Scarce whispers from the tree;
So gently flows the parting breath,
When good men cease to be.

3 And now above the dews of night
The yellow star appears;
So faith springs in the hearts of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.
But soon the morning's happier light
Its glories shall restore;
And eyelids that are sealed in death
Shall wake to close no more.

Consolation.

O THOU who driest the mourner's tear, How dark this world would be, If, when deceived and wounded here, We could not fly to thee!

- 2 But thou wilt heal the broken heart,
 Which like the plants that throw
 Their fragrance from the wounded part,
 Breathes sweetness out of woe.
- When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
 And e'en the hope that threw
 A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
 Is dimmed and vanished too;
- 4 Then sorrow, touched by thee, grows bright, With more than rapture's ray;
 As darkness shows us worlds of light
 We never saw by day.

Source of Consolation,

I'LL praise my Maker while I've breath,
And, when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life and thought and being last,
Or immortality endures.

- 2 Happy the man whose hopes rely On Israel's God; — he made the sky, And earth, and seas, with all their train, His truth forever stands secure; He saves th' oppressed, he feeds the poor; And none shall find his promise vain.
- 3 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind;
 The Lord supports the sinking mind;
 He sends the laboring conscience peace;
 He helps the stranger in distress,
 The widow and the fatherless,
 And grants the prisoner sweet release.
- 4 I'll praise him while he lends me breath,
 And, when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler powers;
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past
 While life and thought and being last,
 Or immortality endures.

Trust and Submission.

MY God, I thank thee! may no thought E'er deem thy chastisements severe; But may this heart, by sorrow taught, Calm each wild wish, each idle fear.

2 Thy mercy bids all nature bloom;
The sun shines bright, and man is gay;
Thine equal mercy spreads the gloom,
That darkens o'er his little day.

- 3 Full many a throb of grief and pain
 Thy frail and erring child must know:
 But not one prayer is breathed in vain,
 Nor does one tear unheeded flow.
- 4 Thy various messengers employ;
 Thy purposes of love fulfil;
 And 'mid the wreck of human joy,
 Let kneeling faith adore thy will.

606 L. M. Bryant.

"EEM not that they are blessed alone,
Whose days a peaceful tenor keep;
The God, who loves our race, has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

- 2 The light of smiles shall fill again The lids that overflow with tears, And weary hours of woe and pain Are earnests of serener years.
- 3 O, there are days of sunny rest
 For every dark and troubled night!
 Grief may abide, an evening guest,
 But joy shall come with early light.
- 4 And thou, who o'er thy friend's low bier
 Sheddest the bitter drops like rain,
 Hope that a brighter, happier sphere
 Will give him to thy arms again.
- 5 For God hath marked each anguished day And numbered every secret tear; And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay For all his children suffer here.

P. M.

MONTGOMERY.

Friends bie, but to libe again.

FRIEND after friend departs;
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts,
That finds not here an end.
Were this frail world our only rest,
Living or dying, none were blest.

- 2 Beyond the flight of time, Beyond this vale of death, There surely is some blessed clime, Where life is not a breath, Nor life's affections but a fire Whose sparks fly upward to expire.
- There is a world above, Where parting is unknown, — A whole eternity of love And blessedness alone; And faith beholds the dying here Translated to that happier sphere.
- 4 Thus, star by star declines
 Till all are passed away,
 As morning high and higher shines
 To pure and perfect day.
 Nor sink those stars in empty night —
 They hide themselves in heaven's own light.

God's Lobe and Care.

I LONG for household voices gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But God hath led my dear ones on,
And he can do no wrong.

- 2 I know not what the future hath Of marvel or surprise, Assured alone that life and death His mercy underlies.
- 3 And if my heart and flesh are weak
 To bear an untried pain,
 The bruiséd reed he will not break,
 But strengthen and sustain.
- 4 And so beside the silent sea
 I wait the muffled oar;
 No harm from him can come to me
 On ocean or on shore.
- I know not where his islands lift
 Their fronded palms in air;
 I only know I cannot drift
 Beyond his love and care.

Mourn not the Departed.

WHY do we mourn departing friends, Or shake at death's alarms? Tis but the voice that Jesus sends To call them to his arms.

- 2 Why should we tremble to convey Their bodies to the tomb? The grave where once our Saviour lay, Hath lost its fearful gloom.
- 3 Thence he arose and now commends
 To us his gracious charms!
 The glory that his truth attends,
 Death of its sting disarms.

4 Though earth and all its joys be dim. On him in faith rely: Our life is hid with Christ in him. — That life can never die.

Thou art gone to the Grave.

THOU art gone to the grave; but we will not deplore thee;

Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb:

The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee:

And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

2 Thou art gone to the grave; we no longer behold thee.

Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side:

But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee.

And sinners may hope, since the Saviour hath died.

3 Thou art gone to the grave; and, its mansion forsaking,

Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;

But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,

And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.

4 Thou art gone to the grave; but we will not deplore thee;

Since God was thy Refuge, thy Guardian, thy Guide;

He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee:

And death has no sting, since the Saviour hath died.

 Calling to him the dear ones whom he loveth,
 In mercy still.
- Not upon us or ours the solemn angel Hath evil wrought;
 The funeral anthem is a glad evangel;
 The good die not!

 What he has given;
 They live on earth in thought and deed, as truly
 As in his heaven.

Keep quietly to God, and think

 Of the eternal years.

 Through calm contrition's tears,
 If tranquil Hope but trims her lamp
 At the eternal years.

TREAD softly — bow the head —
In reverent silence bow;
No passing bell doth toll;
Yet an immortal soul
Is passing now.

- 2 Stranger! however great,
 With holy reverence bow;
 There's one in that poor shed,
 One by that paltry bed,
 Greater than thou.
- 3 Oh! change O wondrous change!
 Burst are the prison bars —
 This moment, there, so low,
 So agonized, and now
 Beyond the stars!
- 4 Oh! change stupendous change!
 There lies the soulless clod:
 The sun eternal breaks,
 The new immortal wakes,
 Wakes with his God!

" I have fought a good fight ; I have finished my course,"

SERVANT of God, well done! Rest from thy loved employ: The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's joy.

The voice at midnight came, He started up to hear;

A mortal arrow pierced his frame— He fell, but felt no fear.

2 Tranquil amidst alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.
His spirit, with a bound,
Burst its encumbering clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
A darkened ruin lay.

3 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
Soldier of Christ! well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

ON Zion's holy walls
Is quenched a beacon light,
In vain the watchman calls,—
"Sentry! what of the night?"
No answering voice is here:
Say—does the soldier sleep?
O yes—upon the bier,
His watch no more to keep.

2 Peace to thee, man of God!
Thine earthly toils are o'er,
The thorny path is trod,
The Shepherd trod before:
Full well he kept his word,—
"I'm with thee to the end;
Fear not! I am the Lord,
Thy never-failing friend."

3 We have no dirge for thee,
It should not call a tear
To know that thou art free;
Thy home — it was not here!
Joy to thee, man of God!
Thy heaven-course is begun,
Unshrinking, thou hast trod
Death's vale, — thy race is run.

A Vision of the Bternal Glory.

O GOD of glory! when with eye uplifted,
Eye of the soul in visioned wonder clear;
And when by thine eternal spirit gifted,
What deep revealings to the soul appear!

- Nature recedes; and in the expanse eternal,
 Spreading and opening to my raptured sight,
 I see the hosts of God, the heights supernal,
 The church triumphant crowned in heaven's own light.
- 3 Ah! there are they who, once among the lowly, Erst trod the paths of patient virtue here; And there are they who, in thy presence holy, Trembled for sin, but knew no other fear.
- 4 Prophets, reformers, they who, God revering,
 Battled with hoary wrong and ancient might;
 Behold them now in triumph reappearing
 On all the hills of God, in glory bright!
- 5 In deepening vision, flames a light before them,
 Where a long train of martyrs rise to view;
 And lo! a central figure bending o'er them,
 The dear Redeemer crowning them anew.
- 6 Victors and heroes all, I see them waving
 Triumphant palms, in robes of purest white:
 No more the terrors of the conflict braving,
 Peace is their lot, and heaven is their delight.

THERE is no flock, however watched and tended,

But one dead lamb is there!
There is no fireside, howsoe'er defended,
But has one vacant chair.

- 2 Let us be patient! These severe afflictions
 Not from the ground arise,
 But oftentimes celestial benedictions
 Assume this dark disguise.
- We see but dimly through the mists and vapors
 Amid these earthly damps,
 What seem to us but sad, funereal tapers
 May be heaven's distant lamps.
- 4 There is no Death! What seems so is transition;
 This life of mortal breath
 Is but a suburb of the life elysian
 Whose portal we call death.
- 5 She is not dead the child of our affection,
 But gone unto that school
 Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
 And Christ himself doth rule.
- We will be patient, and assuage the feeling We may not wholly stay;
 By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
 The grief that must have way.

Whatever thou canst call thine own,

- 3 Take them, O great Eternity!
 Our little life is but a gust
 That bends the branches of thy tree
 And trails its blossoms in the dust.

See the cloud and fire appear!

And every thought harmonious move,
And every heart be peace.

2 Not here, where met to think on him Whose latest thoughts were ours, Shall mortal passions come to dim The prayer devotion pours. 3 "Thy kingdom come;" we watch, we wait, To hear thy cheering call; When heaven shall ope its glorious gate, And God be all in all.

Communion with God and Christ.

MY heavenly Father calls, And Christ invites me near; With both my friendship shall be sweet, And my communion dear.

- 2 God pities all my griefs; He pardons every day; Almighty to protect my soul, And wise to guide my way.
- Jesus, my living Head,
 I bless thy faithful care;
 My Advocate before the throne,
 And my Forerunner there.
- 4 Here fix my roving heart;

 Here wait my warmest love,

 Till the communion be complete,

 In public scenes above.

STREET, B

Let there is Boom.

YE wretched, hungry, starving poor, Behold a royal feast, Where Mercy spreads her bounteous store For every humble guest.

- 2 There Jesus stands with open arms;
 He calls he bids you come:
 Though guilt restrains, and fear alarms,
 Behold, there yet is room.
- O, come, and with his children taste
 The blessings of his love;
 While hope expects the sweet repast
 Of nobler joys above.
- 4 There, with united heart and voice, Before th' eternal throne, Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice, In songs on earth unknown.
- 5 And yet ten thousand thousand more Are welcome still to come: Ye longing souls, the grace adore, Approach, there yet is room.

FURNESS.

The Communion.

HERE, in the broken bread, Here, in the cup we take, His body and his blood behold, Who suffered for our sake.

- 2 O thou, who didst allow Thy Son to suffer thus, Father, what more couldst thou have done, Than thou hast done for us?
- 3 We are persuaded now
 That nothing can divide
 Thy children from thy boundless love,
 Displayed in Him who died;—

4 Who died to make us sure
Of mercy, truth, and peace,
And from the power and pains of sin
To bring a full release.

Bearing with us the Mying of Jesus.

NOT in this simple rite alone
May Calvary's cross to us be shown,
But may we turn, in many an hour,
To feel its soul-constraining power.

- 2 When indolence would have its will, And selfish ease would keep us still, Then to the Saviour may we look, And meet his eye's serene rebuke.
- 3 When men have done us cruel wrong, And angry thoughts are rising strong, May we with softened hearts turn there, And learn the Lord's forgiving prayer.
- 4 When sin looks tempting in our eyes, May Jesus on the cross arise, And ask if we will him forsake, And wear the chains he died to break.
- 5 When pain, or sickness, or distress. Our fainting souls would overpress, To him on Calvary looking still, May we find strength to bear God's will.

On which our dearest Lord was slain:

"Shat they may all be one."

WHEN death was on the path he trod,
And Jesus saw his work was done,
He raised his eyes and prayed to God,
That his disciples might be one.

- 2 This, Father, is our prayer to-day,
 That we may one in spirit be,
 Through Christ, who came to teach the way,
 And all united, God, in thee!
- 3 One in the Faith that works by love
 And purifies the heart and life;
 One in the Hope that looks above,
 And sees an end of sin and strife:
- 4 One in the Love that warms the heart
 And makes it thy most worthy shrine;
 And one in thee, O God, who art
 The Giver of these gifts divine:
- 5 Through life, and till we reach its goal, When what we have to do is done, Heart linked to heart, and soul to soul, And all, through Christ, in thee be one.

The Lord's Supper.

MANY centuries have fled
Since our Saviour broke the bread,
And this sacred feast ordain'd,
Ever by his church retained;
Those his body who discern,
Thus shall meet till his return.

2 Through the church's long eclipse, When from priest or pastor's lips, Truth divine was never heard— 'Mid the famine of the word, Still these symbols witness gave To his love who died to save

- 3 All who bear the Saviour's name,
 Here their common faith proclaim;
 Though diverse in tongue or rite,
 Here, one body to unite;
 Breaking thus one mystic bread,
 Members of one common Head.
- 4 Come, the blessed emblems share, Which the Saviour's death declare; Come, on truth immortal feed, For his flesh is meat indeed: Saviour! witness with the sign, That our ransomed souls are thine.

JESUS, thou joy of loving hearts!
Thou fount of life! Thou light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts.
We turn unfilled to thee again.

- 2 We taste thee, O thou living bread, And long to feast upon thee still! We drink of thee, the fountain head, And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 8 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
 Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
 Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
 Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

 Make all our moments calm and bright!

 Chase the dark night of sin away,

 Shed o'er the world thy holy light!

Children commended to Christ.

SAVIOUR! who thy flock art feeding
With the shepherd's kindest care,
All the feeble gently leading,
While the lambs thy bosom share;
Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in thy gracious arm;
There we know — thy word believing —

There we know — thy word believing – Only there, secure from harm. 2 Never, from thy pasture roving,
Let them be the lion's prey;
Let thy tenderness, so loving,
Keep them all life's dangerous way:
Then within thy fold eternal
Let them find a resting-place;
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of thy grace.

Bedication Mymn.

THE perfect world by Adam trod,
Was the first temple, — built by God;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars, one by one.

- 2 He hung its starry roof on high, The broad, illimitable sky; He spread its pavement, green and bright, And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood, —
 The sea, the sky, and "all was good:"
 And when its first pure praises rang,
 The "morning stars together sang."
- 4 Lord! 't is not ours to make the sea
 And earth and sky a house for thee;
 But in thy sight our offering stands,
 A humbler temple, "made with hands."

O GOD! ere heaven and earth were planned,
Adoring silence worshipped thee;
Now the vast universe doth stand
The temple of thy majesty.

- 2 Its walls are wrought of sapphire bright; Its countless spires are starry flame: Suns on the boundless ether write The sovereign beauty of thy name.
- 3 An earthly temple, by thy grace,
 This day we dedicate to thee;
 Deign to make here thy dwelling-place,
 O thou that fill'st immensity.
- 4 Fold us beneath thy sheltering wings,
 As here we worship at thy shrine:
 Ours be the peace thy presence brings,
 The glory and the praise be thine.

Dedication of a Church.

PATHER, lo! we consecrate
Unto thee this house and shrine,
O! may Jesus visit here,
As he did in Palestine.
Here may blind eyes see his light,
Deaf ears hear his accents sweet,
And we, like those groups of old,
Sit and linger at his feet.

- 2 And to learn of faith and love,
 Strong in sorrow, pain and loss,
 May we come and find them here,
 In the garden, on the cross.
 Like the spices that enfold
 Him we love in rich perfume,
 May our thoughts embalm him here,
 While he slumbers in the tomb.
- 3 When we watch by shrouded hopes,
 Weeping at death's marble door,
 May the angels meet us here,—
 Lo! your Christ has gone before!
 And while we stand "looking up,"
 In our faith and wonder lost,
 Here send down thy spirit's power,
 Like the tongues of Pentecost.

Dedication of a Church.

CREAT God, our king! to thee
We come on bended knee,
Our gift to bring;
Our suppliant prayer we raise,
That this, our house of praise,
Accepted be.

2 And to this sacred place,
O, turn thy gracious face
By night and day;
Here hearken to our prayers,
Here lift the heavy cares
From burdened hearts.

- 8 Here may the erring come;
 Here wanderers find a home
 In thy great love;
 Here may the sinning bring—
 Thy favorite offering—
 A contrite heart.
- 4 Here sing the wondrous grace,
 Which saves our guilty race
 From sin's dark stain;
 Till in thy courts above,
 Raised by redeeming love,
 New songs we bring.

Laging of a Corner-Stone.

THIS stone to thee in faith we lay, —
We build the temple, Lord, to thee,
Thine eye be open night and day,
To keep this house from error free.

- 2 Here, when thy people seek thy face, And dying sinners pray to live, Hear thou, in heaven, thy dwelling-place. And when thou hearest, Lord, forgive.
- 8 Here, when thy messengers proclaim
 The blessed gospel of thy Son,
 Still by the power of his great name
 Be mighty signs and wonders done.
- 4 Thy glory never hence depart!
 Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone;
 Thy kingdom come to every heart;
 In every bosom fix thy throne.

Opening of a Spristian Church.

OUR Father, God! not face to face
May mortal sense commune with thee,
Nor lift the curtains of that place
Where dwells thy secret Majesty.
Yet whereso'er our spirits bend
In rev'rend faith and humble prayer,
Thy promised blessing will descend,
And we shall find thy spirit there.

- 2 Lord! be the spot where now we meet
 An open gateway into heaven;
 Here may we sit at Jesus' feet,
 And feel our deepest sins forgiven.
 Here may desponding care look up,
 And sorrow lay its burden down,
 Or learn of him to drink the cup,
 To bear the cross, and win the crown.
- 8 Here may the sick and wandering soul, To truth still blind, to sin a slave, Find better than Bethesda's pool, Or than Siloam's healing wave.
 And may we learn, while here apart From the world's passion and its strife, That thy true shrine's a loving heart, And thy best praise a holy life!

- 3 Through all our Sabbaths here below,

 Our souls divinely consecrate.
- 4 And when have run our life's quick sands,
 And we shall reach the fane on high,
 Within this temple made with hands
 Our children's spirits sanctify.

Worship of God. Ps. prie.

COME, sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glory sing; Jehovah is the sovereign God, The universal king.

- 2 He formed the deeps unknown; He gave the seas their bound; The watery worlds are all his own, And all the solid ground.
- Come, worship at his throne;
 Come, bow before the Lord:
 We are his work, and not our own;
 He formed us by his word.
- 4 To-day attend his voice,
 Nor dare provoke his rod;
 Come like the people of his choice
 And own your gracious God.

The Mercy-Sent.

FROM every stormy wind that blows, From every swelling tide of wees, There is a calm, a sure retreat: T is found before the mercy-seat.

- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads, -A place of all on earth most sweet; It is the heavenly mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend. Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sundered far, by faith they mest Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar, And sin and sense molest no more: And heaven comes down our souls to greet. And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Seeking Refuge.

FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly;
Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
Father, we seek thy shelter here:
Weary and weak, thy grace we pray;
Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

2 Long have we roamed in want and pain, Long have we sought thy rest in vain; Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost, Long have our souls been tempest-tost: Low at thy feet our sins we lay; Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

HOW sweet to reflect on the joys that await us

·In you blissful region, the haven of rest!
Where glorified spirits with welcome shall greet

And lead us to mansions prepared for the blest! Encircled with light, and with glory enshrouded, Our happiness perfect, our mind's sky unclouded, We'll bathe in the ocean of pleasure unbounded,

And range with delight through the Eden of love.

While legions angelic, with harps tuned celestial, Harmoniously join in the concert of praise, The saints, as they come from the regions terrestrial,

In loud hallelujahs their voices will raise.

Then songs to the Lamb shall re-echo through heaven:

Our souls will respond, to Emmanuel be given All glory, all honor, all might and dominion, Who brought us through grace to the Eden of love.

3 Then hail, blessed state, hail, ye seraphs of glory, Ye angels of light, we'll soon meet you above, And join your full choir in rehearsing the story, Salvation from sorrow through ransoming love! Though prisoned in earth, yet by anticipation, Already our souls feel a sweet prelibation Of joys that await us, the joys of salvation, Reserved for mankind in the Eden of love!

How sweet to my soul is communion with saints; To find at the banquet of mercy there's room, And feel in the presence of Jesus at home.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home; Prepare me, dear Saviour, for glory, my home.

2 While here in the valley of conflict I stay,
O, give me submission and strength as my day;
In all my afflictions to thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

3 Whate'er thou deniest, O give me thy grace, The spirit's sure witness, and smiles on thy face, Endue me with patience until thou shalt come, And bless me, while here, with a foretaste of home.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

No more as an exile in sorrow to pine;
And in thy dear image arise from the tomb,
With glorified millions to praise thee at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

A War Hymn.

THOU who ordainest for the land's salvation, Famine, and fire, and sword, and lamentation,

Now unto thee we lift our supplication — God save the Nation!

- 2 By the great sign, foretold, of thy appearing, Coming in clouds, while mortal men stand fearing, Show us amid this smoke of battle, clearing, Thy chariot nearing!
- 3 By the brave blood that floweth like a river,
 Hurl thou a thunderbolt from out thy quiver!
 Break thou the strong gates! Every fetter shiver!
 Smite and deliver!

L. M. H. WARE, JR. She God of our Pathers.

IKE Israel's host to exile driven,
Across the flood the pilgrims fled;
Their hands bore up the ark of heaven,
And heaven their trusting footsteps led,
Till on these savage shores they trod,
And won the wilderness for God.

2 Then, when their weary ark found rest, Another Zion proudly grew; In more than Judah's glory dressed, With light that Israel never knew, From sea to sea her empire spread, Her temple heaven, and Christ her Head. 3 Then let the grateful Church to-day
Its ancient rite with gladness keep;
And still our fathers' God display
His kindness, though the fathers sleep.
O, bless as thou hast blest the past,
While earth, and time, and heaven shall last!

The Pathers remembered.

ONE are those great and good
Who here in peril stood
And raised their hymn:
Peace to the reverend dead!
The light, that on their head
The glorious past has shed,
Shall ne'er grow dim.

- 2 Ye temples, that to God
 Rise where our fathers trod,
 Guard well your trust,—
 The faith that dared the sea,
 The truth that made them free,
 Their cherished purity,
 Their garnered dust.
- 3 Thou high and holy One,
 Whose care for sire and son
 All nature fills;
 While day shall break and close,
 While night her crescent shows,
 O, let thy light repose
 On these thy hills!

WHILE sounds of war are heard around,
And death and ruin strow the ground,
To thee we look, on thee we call,
The Parent and the Lord of all.

- 2 Thou, who hast stamped on human kind The image of a heaven-born mind, And in a Father's wide embrace Hast cherished all the kindred race,—
- 3 Great God, whose powerful hand can bind The raging waves, the furious wind, O, bid the human tempest cease, And hush the maddening world to peace.
- 4 With reverence may each hostile land Hear and obey that high command, Thy Son's blest errand from above,— "My creatures, live in mutual love!"

Dirge for a Soldier.

CLOSE his eyes, his work is done!
What to him is friend or foeman,
Rise of moon, or set of sun,
Hand of man, or kiss of woman?
Lay him low, lay him low,
In the clover or the snow!
What cares he? he cannot know!
Lay him low!

- 2 As a man may, he fought his fight,
 Proved his truth by his endeavor;
 Let him sleep in solemn night,
 Sleep forever and forever.
 Lay him low, etc.
- 8 Fold him in his country's stars,
 Roll the drum and fire the volley!
 What to him are all our wars,
 What but death bemocking folly?
 Lay him low, etc.
- 4 Leave him to God's watching eye,
 Trust him to the hand that made him,
 Mortal love weeps idly by:
 God alone has power to aid him.
 Lay him low, etc.

By all their country's wishes blest!
When spring, with dewy fingers cold,

She there shall dress a sweeter sod

OD of the free! upon thy breath Our flag is for the right unrolled, As broad and brave as when its stars First lit the hallowed time of old.

- 2 For duty still its folds shall fly;
 For honor still its glories burn,
 Where truth, religion, valor, guard
 The patriot's sword and martyr's urn.
- 3 God of the free! our nation bless
 In its strong manhood as its birth;
 And make its life a star of hope
 For all the struggling of the earth.

 O South! wave answer with thy palm;
 And in our Union's heritage
 Together sing the nation's psalm!

Mymn of Peace.

THE dwellings of the free resound With songs of victory; And countless hearts, the land around, For peace are blessing thee.

2 By thee we raised the conquering sign That led the victor band; Thine was the power, the peace is thine; We see in all, thy hand.

- Still let that conquering banner wave
 O'er souls thou hast made free,
 And fold the hearts which through the grave
 Have heavenward passed to thee.
- 4 In joyful songs thy name we bless,
 Who makest wars to cease;
 O, grant our land, through righteousness,
 A never broken peace.

Acceptable Offering.

RATHER of our feeble race,
Wise, beneficent, and kind!
Spread o'er nature's ample face,
Flows thy goodness unconfined.
Musing in the silent grove,
Or the busy walks of men,
Still we trace thy wondrous love,
Claiming large returns again.

2 Lord, what offering shall we bring, At thine altars when we bow? Hearts, the pure unsullied spring Whence the kind affections flow; Soft compassion's feeling soul, By the melting eye expressed; Sympathy, at whose control Sorrow leaves the wounded breast. 3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store;—
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus the accepted offering bring,
Love to thee and all mankind.

And let our treasures still be spent,

- 2 If the lot his love doth give
 Is by earnest toil to live,
 If with nerve and sinew strong
 Thou dost labor hard and long;
 Then e'en from thy slender store

OUR offering is a willing mind To comfort the distressed; In others' good our own to find, In others' blessings blessed.

 And on the cheek where sickness preys,
 Bid health to plant a rose.
- 3 Go where the friendless stranger lies, To perish in his doom, Snatch from the grave his closing eyes, And bring his blessing home.

 Shall we as freely give;
 Thus copy him who lived to save,
 And died that we might live.

Old and New.

O, SOMETIMES gleams upon our sight,
Through present wrong, the Eternal Right!
And step by step, since time began,
We see the steady gain of man;—

- 2 That all of good the past has had Remains to make our own time glad, Our common daily life divine, And every land a Palestine.
- 3 We lack but open eye and ear To find the Orient's marvels here, The still small voice in autumn's hush, Yon maple wood the burning bush.
- 4 For still the new transcends the old, In signs and tokens manifold; Slaves rise up men; the olive waves With roots deep set in battle graves.

- 5 Through the harsh noises of our day A low, sweet prelude finds its way; Through clouds of doubt and creeds of fear A light is breaking, calm and clear.
- 6 Henceforth my heart shall sigh no more For olden time and holier shore; God's love and blessing, then and there, Are now, and here, and everywhere.

With its reformers, speaking yet, though dead;

Who unto strife and toil and tears were fated, Who unto fiery martyrdoms were led

2 O Earth! the Present too is crowned with splendor

By its reformers battling in the strife;

Friends of humanity, stern, strong, and tender, Making the world more hopeful with their life.

For a Christian Festibal.

THOU God of years and seasons all,
Of light, and peace, and love, and power;
Once more on thy great name we call,
In this our holy festal hour.

- 2 We praise thee for thy presence here, For prayer, and speech, and cheerful song: For guardian care, that year by year Attends us all life's ways along:
- 3 For what we hope, and what we see Of human progress in our time; But gleams of freedom though they be, Yet dawning of its day sublime!
- 4 And since again apart we move
 In life's great work, to us be given
 The faith that toils in Christian love,
 And blesses man with truth's own heaven.

The Mother's Mymn.

ORD, who ordainest for mankind, Benignant toils and tender cares, We thank thee for the ties that bind The mother to the child she bears..

- We thank thee for the hopes that rise Within her heart, as, day by day, The dawning soul from those young eyes Looks with a clearer, steadier ray.
- 3 And grateful for the blessing given, With that dear infant on her knee, She strains the eye to look to heaven, The voice to lisp a prayer to thee.
- 4 Such thanks the blessed Mary gave,
 When from her lap the holy child,
 Sent from above to seek and save
 The lost of earth, looked up and smiled.
- 5 All Gracious! grant to those who bear
 A mother's charge the strength and light,
 To guide the feet that own their care
 In ways of love and truth and right.

"Enter into his Gates with Spanksgibing, and into his Courts with Braise."

A PPROACH not the altar
With gloom in thy soul;
Nor let thy feet falter,
From terror's control!
God loves not the sadness
Of fear and mistrust;
Oh, serve him with gladness—
The gentle, the just!

2 His bounty is tender,
His being is love,
His smile fills with splendor,
The blue arch above.

Confiding, believing,
Oh! enter always,
"His courts with thanksgiving —
His portals with praise!"

8 Nor come to the temple
With pride in thy mien;
But lowly and simple,
In courage serene.
Bring meekly, before him,
The faith of a child:
Bow down and adore him,
With heart undefiled.

SWEET to the soul the parting ray,
That ushers placid evening in,
When with the still, expiring day,
The Sabbath's peaceful hours begin;
How grateful to the anxious breast,
The sacred hours of holy rest!

- 2 Hushed is the tumult of this day, And worldly cares and business cease; While soft the vesper breezes play, To hymn the glad return of peace. O season blest! O moment given To turn the vagrant thoughts to heaven!
- 3 Oft as this hallowed hour shall come, O, raise my thoughts from earthly things, And bear them to my heavenly home, On living faith's immortal wings — Till the last gleam of life decay, In one eternal Sabbath day.

OD of mercy, do thou never From our offering turn away, But command a blessing ever On the memory of this day.

- 2 Light and peace do thou ordain it; O'er it be no shadow flung, Let no deadly darkness stain it, And no clouds be o'er it hung.
- 3 May the song this people raises,
 And its vows to thee addressed,
 Mingle with the prayers and praises,
 That thou hearest from the blest.

 And the hearts that love thee dust,

THE morning stars in concert sang,
When God created heaven and earth;
And earth and heaven with music rang,
When angels hailed Messiah's birth.

- 2 Nor ever, since his sabbath-rest, When the great Maker from the skies, His finished works beheld and bless'd, Have songs of glory ceased to rise.
- 3 Where two or three in union meet, Or thousands throng the house of prayer, Heart-melodies, thanksgivings sweet, And faithful vows, are offered there.

 All spirits tuned to one accord,
 Our prayer be this, "Thy will be done;"
 And this our anthem, "Praise the Lord!"

NOT for the summer's hour alone, When skies resplendent shine, And youth and pleasure fill the throne, Our hearts and hands we join;

- 2 But for those stern and wintry days
 Of sorrow, pain, and fear,
 When Heaven's wise discipline doth make
 Our earthly journey drear;—
- 3 Not for this span of life alone, Which like a blast doth fly, And as the transient flowers of grass Just blossom, droop, and die; —
- 4 But for a being without end
 This vow of love we take;
 Grant us, O God, one home at last,
 For thy great mercy's sake.

Alone may man commune with heaven, or see
Only in savage wood
And sunny vale the present Deity;
Or only hear his voice
Where the winds whisper and the waves rejoice.

2 Even here do I behold

Thy steps, Almighty, here, amidst the crowd,

Through the great city rolled,

With everlasting murmur deep and loud,—

Choking the ways that wind

Mongst the proud piles, the work of human kind.

3 And when the hours of rest
Come, like a calm upon the mid-sea brine,
Hushing its billowy breast;
The quiet of that moment too is thine;
It breathes of Him who keeps
The vast and helpless city while it sleeps.

FLUNG to the heedless winds,
Or on the waters cast,
Their ashes shall be watched,
And gathered at the last:
And from that scattered dust,
Around us and abroad,
Shall spring a plenteous seed
Of witnesses for God.

2 The Father hath received
Their latest living breath;
Yet vain is Satan's boast
Of victory in their death:
Still, still, though dead, they speak,
And trumpet-tongued proclaim
To many a wakening land
The one availing name.

WHO are those before God's throne,
What the crownéd host I see?
As the sky with stars thick strown
Is their shining company:
Hallelujahs, hark! they sing;
Solemn praise to God they bring.

- 2 Who are those arrayed in light, Clothed in righteousness divine, Wearing robes most pure and white, That unstained shall ever shine, That can nevermore decay? — Whence came all this bright array?
- 3 They are those who much have borne, Trial, sorrow, pain, and care; Who have wrestled night and morn With the mighty God in prayer; Now their strife hath found its close; God hath turned away their woes.
- 4 They are those who hourly here
 Served as priests before their Lord,
 Offering up with gladsome cheer
 Soul and body at his word;
 Now within the holy place,
 They behold him face to face.

ANGIENT HYMN.

The Noble Army of Martyrs.

THE triumphs of the martyred saints
The joyous lay demand;
The heart delights in song to dwell
On that victorious band, —
Those whom the senseless world abhorred,
Who cast the world aside,
Deeming it worthless, for the sake
Of Christ, their Lord and guide.

2 For him they braved the tyrant's rage, The scourge's cruel smart; The wild beast's fang their bodies tore, But vanquished not the heart; Like lambs before the sword they fell, Nor cry nor plaint expressed; For patience kept the conscious mind, And armed the fearless breast. 3 What tongue can tell the crown prepared
The martyr's brow to grace?
His shining robe, his joys unknown,
Before thy glorious face?
Vouchsafe us, Lord, if such thy will,
Clear skies and seasons calm;
If not the martyr's cross to bear,
And win the martyr's palm.

O STRONG, upwelling prayers of faith,
From inmost founts of life ye start,
The spirit's pulse, the vital breath
Of soul and heart!

- 2 Ye brook no forced and measured tasks, Nor weary rote, nor formal chains; The simple heart, that freely asks In love, obtains.
- 3 For man the living temple is,
 The mercy-seat and cherubim,
 And all the holy mysteries
 He bears with him.
- 4 And most avails the prayer of love,
 Which, wordless, shapes itself in deeds,
 And wearies heaven for naught above
 Our common needs;—
- 5 Which brings to God's all perfect will
 That trust of his undoubting child,
 Whereby all seeming good and ill
 Are reconciled;—

6 And seeking not for special signs
Of favor, is content to fall
Within the providence which shines
And rains on all.

L. M. W. M. FERNALD. The Soul's Amperishable Work.

ETERNAL God, thy work alone, In souls regenerate and sublime, Securely stands, to change unknown, And scorns the ravages of time.

- Work we on marble? Slow, but sure,
 Its crumbling statues turn to dust;
 Pale phantoms that awhile endure,
 To tell how fleet is mortal trust.
- Work we in brass? How soon shall time Its proudest monuments efface, And every tender, hallowed line, And form and feature, quit their place!
- 4 Or do we stately temples rear?

 Behold! their strongest pillars yield,
 And walls and arches disappear,

 Foredoomed to fall, for ruin sealed.

- 5 But when we work upon the mind,
 Its tablets grave, its sculpture hew,
 And, sacred virtue there enshrined,
 We bring the graces all to view,—
- 6 'T is then such images we rear As time and change may e'er defy: Life, beauty, joy, — all there appear, And brighten to eternity!

O, EVER swaying, conscious soul!
What tidal mysteries are these
That through my inmost being roll,
As borne upon the heaving seas?

- 2 From wave to wave, from land to land, Of this vast inner world I'm tost; And now on heavenly heights I stand, And now in dreadful deeps am lost.
- 3 O thou, who calm'st the outward strife Of stormy seas! move now thy will, And, in the realm of spirit life, Say to its ragings, "Peace, be still!"
- 4 Peace!—and a sacred calm shall flow O'er all my passions, Lord, from thee; While gentle gales shall sweetly blow, And waft me to eternity.

I give thee, Lord, a contrite heart;
And on my weary spirit steal
The thoughts that pass all earthly weal.

- 2 I cast above my tearful eyes, And muse upon the starry skies; And think that He who governs there Still keeps me in his guardian care,
- 3 I gaze upon the opening flower,

 And bless the love which made it bloom,
 To chase away my transient gloom.
- 4 I think whene'er this mortal frame Returns again to whence it came, My soul shall wing its happy flight To regions of eternal light.

ADAPTED TO APPROPRIATE MUSIC IN "THE MELODIA SACRA."

PSALM XIX. PART I. C.M. The Meabens declare the Glory of God.

THE heav'ns declare thy glory, Lord,
Which that alone can fill;
The firmament and stars express
Their great Creator's skill.

- 2 The dawn of each returning day
 Fresh beams of knowledge brings;
 And from the dark returns of night
 Divine instruction springs.
- 3 Their powerful language to no realm Or region is confined;
 T is nature's voice, and understood Alike by all mankind.

PSALM XXIII. C. M. Gloria Patri.

THE Lord himself, the mighty Lord,
Vouchsafes to be my guide;
The Shepherd by whose constant care
My wants are all supplied.

- In tender grass he makes me feed, And gently there repose;
 Then leads me to cool shades, and where Refreshing water flows.
- 3 Since God doth thus his wondrous love Through all my life extend, That life to him I will devote, And in his temple spend.

PSALM XXIX. L. M. Praise the Lord in Wis Temple,

YE that in might and power excel, Your grateful sacrifice prepare; God's glorious actions loudly tell, His wondrous power to all declare.

- 2 To his great name fresh altars raise; Devoutly due respect afford; Him in his holy temple praise, Where he's with solemn state adored.
- 8 God rules the angry floods on high;
 His boundless sway shall never cease;
 His saints with strength he will supply,
 And bless his own with constant peace.

PSALM XXXIII. C. M. Praise the Lord for Mis Goodness.

LET all the just to God, with joy,
Their cheerful voices raise;
For well the righteous it becomes
To sing glad songs of praise.

- 2 Let harps, and psalteries, and lutes, In joyful concert meet;
 And new-made songs of great applause
 The harmony complete.
- 8 For faithful is the word of God; His works with truth abound; He justice loves; and all the earth Is with his goodness crown'd.

PSALM XXXIV. C. M. Gloria Batri.

THROUGH all the changing scenes of life, In trouble and in joy, The praises of my God shall still My heart and tongue employ.

- 2 O, magnify the Lord with me, With me exalt his name: When in distress to him I call'd, He to my rescue came.
- 8 O, make but trial of his love, Experience will decide How blest they are, and only they, Who in his truth confide.
- 4 Fear him, ye saints: and you will then
 Have nothing else to fear:
 Make you his service your delight,
 Your wants shall be his care.

PSALM XLI. C.M. Charity.

HAPPY the man whose tender care Relieves the poor distress'd! When troubles compass him around, The Lord shall give him rest.

- 2 The Lord his life, with blessings crown'd In safety shall prolong; And disappoint the will of those Who seek to do him wrong.
- 8 If he, in languishing estate, Oppress'd with sickness lie; The Lord will easy make his bed, And inward strength supply.

PSALM XLV. C.M. God our Bing.

WHILE I the King's loud praise rehearse,
Indited by my heart,
My tongue is like the pen of him
That writes with ready art.

2 How matchless is thy form, O King! Thy mouth with grace o'erflows; Because fresh blessings God on thee Eternally bestows.

- 3 Gird on thy sword, most mighty Prince; And clad in rich array, With glorious ornaments of power, Majestic pomp display.
- 4 Ride on in state, and still protect
 The meek, the just, and true;
 Whilst thy right hand, with swift revenge,
 Does all thy foes pursue.
- 5 But thy firm throne, O God, is fix'd Forever to endure; Thy sceptre's sway shall always last, By righteous laws secure.
- 6 Whilst this my song to future times Transmits thy glorious name, And makes the world with one consent Thy lasting praise proclaim.

PSALM XLVI. 8's M. God our Befuge.

GOD is our refuge in distress,

A present help when dangers press,
In him undaunted we'll confide;
Though earth were from her centre tost,
And mountains in the ocean lost,
Torn piecemeal by the roaring tide.

2 A gentler stream with gladness still
The city of our Lord shall fill,
The royal seat of God most high:
God dwells in Zion, whose fair towers
Shall mock th' assaults of earthly powers,
While his almighty aid is nigh.

PSALM XLVIII. C. M. The Lord is Great.

THE Lord, the only God, is great,
And greatly to be praised
In Zion, on whose happy mount
His sacred throne is raised.

- 2 In Zion we have seen perform'd A work that was foretold, In pledge that God, for times to come, His city will uphold.
- 8 Let Zion's mount with joy resound Her daughters all be taught In songs his judgment to extol Who this deliv'rance wrought.
- 4 This God is ours, and will be ours
 Whilst we in him confide;
 Who, as he has preserved us now,
 Till death will be our guide.

PSALM LVII. L. M. For Baster.

THY mercy, Lord, to me extend, On thy protection I depend, And to thy wings for shelter haste Until this raging storm be past.

- 2 To thy tribunal, Lord, I fly, Thou sovereign Judge and God most high, Who wonders hast for me begun, And will not leave thy work undone.
- 8 O God, my heart is fix'd, 't is bent, Its thankful tribute to present; And, with my heart, my voice I 'll raise To thee, my God, in songs of praise.
 - 4 Awake, my glory; harp and lute, No longer let your strings be mute: And I, my tuneful part to take, Will with the early dawn awake.
 - 5 Be thou, O God, exalted high; And as thy glory fills the sky, So let it be on earth display'd, Till thou art here, as there obey'd.

PSALM LXVI. PART I. C. M. Barnest Braise.

LET all the lands, with shouts of joy,
To God their voices raise:
Sing psalms in honor of his name,
And spread his glorious praise.

- 2 Through all the earth, the nations round Shall thee, their God, confess; And with glad hymns, their awful dread Of thy great name express.
- 8 O, come! behold the works of God, And then with me you'll own That he to all the sons of men Has wondrous judgment shown.
- 4 O all ye nations, bless our God, And loudly speak his praise; Who keeps our souls alive, and still Confirms our steadfast ways.

PSALM LXVII. 8. M.

Mis Glory shall be made known in all the Barth.

TO bless thy chosen race, In mercy, Lord, incline; And cause the brightness of thy face On all thy saints to shine:

- 2 That so thy wondrous way
 May through the world be known;
 While distant lands their tribute pay
 And thy salvation own.
- 8 O, let them shout and sing, With joy and pious mirth; For thou, the righteous Judge and King, Shalt govern all the earth.
- 4 Then shall the teeming ground,
 A large increase disclose,
 And we with plenty shall be crowned,
 Which God, our God, bestows.

5 Then God upon our land
Shall constant blessings shower;
And all the world in awe shall stand
Of his resistless power.

PSALM LXXIV. C. M.

Blessed are they who worship in his Semple.

O GOD of hosts, the mighty Lord, How lovely is the place Where thou, enthroned in glory, show'st The brightness of thy face!

- 2 My longing soul faints with desire To view thy blest abode; My panting heart and flesh cry out For thee, the living God.
- 8 O Lord of hosts, my King and God, How highly bless'd are they, Who in thy temple always dwell, And there thy praise display!
- 4 Thrice happy they, whose choice has thee
 Their sure protection made,
 Who long to tread the sacred ways
 That to thy dwelling lead!

PSALM XCI. PART 11. 2. 88 M. Cod our Guardian.

HE that has God his guardian made Shall under the Almighty's shade Secure and undisturb'd abide; Thus to my soul of him I'll say, He is my fortress and my stay, My God in whom I will confide.

2 His tender love and watchful care Shall free thee from the fowler's snare, And from the noisome pestilence; He over thee his wings shall spread, And cover thy unguarded head; His truth shall be thy strong defence.

PSALM XCII. C. M. Morning and Bening Praise.

HOW good and pleasant must it be To thank the Lord most high; And with repeated hymns of praise His name to magnify!

- 2 With every morning's early dawn His goodness to relate; And of his constant truth, each night, The glad effects repeat!
- 3 To ten-string'd instruments we'll sing, With tuneful psalteries join'd; And to the harp, with solemn sounds, For sacred use design'd.

PSALM XCIII. L. M. EFfth Glory Clab.

WITH glory clad, with strength array'd.
The Lord that o'er all nature reigns,
The world's foundation strengly laid,
And the vast fabric still sustains.

- 2 How surely stablish'd is thy throne? Which shall no change or period see; For thou, O Lord, and thou alone, Art God from all eternity.
- 8 The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice, And toss the troubled waves on high; But God above can still their noise, And make the angry sea comply.
- 4 Thy promise, Lord, is ever sure, And they that in thy house would dwell, That happy station to secure, Must still in holiness excel.

PSALM XCV. L. M. Our Balbation.

O COME, loud anthems let us sing, Loud thanks to our almighty King; For we our voices high should raise, When our salvation's rock we praise.

- 2 Into his presence let us haste, To thank him for his favors past; To him address, in joyful songs, The praise that to his name belongs;
- 3 O, let us to his courts repair, And bow with adoration there: Down on our knees devoutly all Before the Lord, our Maker, fall.

PSALM XCVI. 8's M. A Song of Praise.

SING to the Lord a new-made song; Let earth in one assembled throng, Her common patron's praise resound: Sing to the Lord, and bless his name, From day to day, his praise proclaim, Who us has with salvation crown'd, To heathen lands his fame rehearse, His wonders to the universe.

2 Proclaim aloud Jehovah reigns, Whose power the universe sustains, And banish'd justice will restore: Let therefore heaven new joys confess, And heavenly mirth let earth express, Its loud applause the ocean roar Its mute inhabitants rejoice, And for this triumph find a voice,

PSALM CVI. L. M. Wester, Entercy endureth Foreber.

O, RENDER thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love;
Whose mercy firm through ages past
Has stood, and shall forever last.

2 Who can his mighty deeds express, Not only vast, but numberless? What mortal eloquence can raise His tribute of immortal praise?

- 8 O, may I worthy prove to see
 Thy saints in full prosperity,
 That I the joyful choir may join,
 And count thy people's triumph mine.
- 4 Let Israel's God be ever bless'd,
 His name eternally confess'd;
 Let all his saints, with full accord,
 Sing loud Amens, praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CVII. C. M. Besolcing in God.

WITH cheerful notes let all the earth
To heaven their voices raise;
Let all, inspired with godly mirth,
Sing solemn hymns of praise.

- 2 God's tender mercy knows to bound His truth shall ne'er decay; Then let the willing nations round Their grateful tribute pay.
- 3 Then open wide the temple gates To which the just repair, That I may enter in, and praise My great Deliv'rer there.
- 4 Within those gates of God's abode
 To which the righteous press,
 Since thou hast heard and set me safe,
 Thy holy name I'll bless.
- 5 That which the builders once refused
 Is now the corner-stone:
 This is the wondrous work of God,
 The work of God alone.
- 6 This day is God's, let all the land Exalt their cheerful voice: Lord, we beseech thee, save us now And make us still rejoice.

PSALM CXXII. C. M. Joyful Praise in the Lord's Temple.

O, 'T WAS a joyful sound, to hear Our tribes devoutly say, Up, Israel, to the temple haste, And keep your festal day!

- 2 At Salem's courts we must appear, With our assembled powers, In strong and beauteous order ranged Like her united towers.
- 8 T is thither, by divine command, The tribes of God repair, Before his ark to celebrate His name with praise and prayer.
- 4 But most of all I'll seek thy good, And ever wish thee well, For Zion and the temple's sake, Where God vouchsafes to dwell.

PSALM CXXXIII. C. M. Brotherly Lobe.

HOW vast must their advantage be, How great their pleasure prove, Who live like brethren, and consent In offices of love!

- 2 True love is like the precious oil, Which, pour'd on Aaron's head, Ran down his beard, and o'er his robes Its costly fragrance shed.
- 8 'Tis like refreshing dew, which does On Hermon's top distil; Or like the early drops, that fall On Zion's favor'd hill.
- 4 For Zion is the chosen seat
 Where the Almighty King
 The promised blessing has ordain'd,
 And life's eternal spring.

PSALM CXXXVI. H. M. Eps Zobe of God.

TO God, the mighty Lord,
Your joyful thanks repeat;
To him due praise afford,
As good as he is great.
For God does prove
Our constant friend;
His boundless love

Their numerous hosts of light.
The sun to rule by day,
The moon and stars by night.
For God, etc.

4 He does the food supply
On which all creatures live:
To God, who reigns on high,
Eternal praises give.
For God will prove
Our constant friend;
His boundless love
Shall never end.

PSALM CXLVII. C. M. A Praise.

O, PRAISE the Lord with hymns of joy, And celebrate his fame; For pleasant, good, and comely 't is To praise his holy name.

2 To God, the Lord, a hymn of praise With grateful voices sing; To songs of triumph tune the harp, And strike each warbling string. 3 He covers heaven with clouds, and thence Refreshing rain bestows, And on the mountains through his care, The grass in plenty grows.

4 Let Zion and Jerusalem
To God their praise address;
Whose strength secures their lasting gates
Who does their children bless.

PSALM CXLVIII. H. M. Enibersal Braise.

YE boundless realms of joy,
Exalt your Maker's fame;
His praise your song employ
Above the starry frame;
Your voices raise,
Ye Cherubim
And Seraphim,
To sing his praise.

2 Thou moon, that rul'st the night,
And sun, that guid'st the day,
Ye glittering stars of light,
To him your homage pay:
His praise declare,
Ye heavens above,
And clouds that move
In liquid air.

3 Let them adore the Lord,
And praise his holy name,
By whose almighty word
They all from nothing came;
And all shall last
From changes free;
His firm decree
Stands ever fast.

4 United zeal be shown
His wondrous fame to raise,
Whose glorious name alone
Deserves our endless praise.
Earth's utmost ends
His power obey;
His glorious sway
The sky transcends.

PSALM CL. L. M. Praise Pim for Pis Goodness.

O, PRAISE the Lord in that blest place From whence his goodness largely flows; Praise him in heaven, where he his faco, Unveil'd in perfect glory, shows.

- 2 Praise him for all the mighty acts Which he in our behalf has done; His kindness this return exacts, With which our praise should equal run.
- 8 Let the shrill trumpet's warlike voice Make rocks and hills his praise rebound, Praise him with harp's melodious noise And gentle psaltery's silver sound.
- 4 Let them who joyful hymns compose, To cymbals set their songs of praise; To well-tuned cymbals, and to those That loudly sound on solemn days.
